

REFLECTIONS

HOKULANI

FORWARD

Many people encouraged me to gather all of my numerous post and writings and make them into a collection.

A special thank you, for my Astral Wife and Partner Lucy Az as well as writer and influencer Xpanther, for encouraging me to assemble these together.

Below is my About Me information, as found on a social media platform, as follows:

I believe in morale values, but my own. I have a love for women, tattoos, animals and enjoy making friends. Don't really like getting male body part pictures, so please refrain. If your profile is a digit, I will block.

I am the daughter and a High Priestess of Lilith. I come with Her authority and Her power. It is dark, it is primordial, and I can bring the full weight of Her raw power to bear.

I am patient, merciful, accepting, and loving to those seeking and worthy. But to those that have oppressed, that have deceived, and taken advantage of the ignorant, I take out their leaders, drive their best warriors to their knees, and then take their sheep as my own.

I am Hokulani, seed of Samael and bloodline of Lilith, corruptor of oppressors.

As High Priestesses before me, I am responsible for exposing the deception and inhumanity of Abrahamic religions and yahweh, the dismantling and mockery of the bible, the dismissal of any credibility of the Christian Jesus, and the overpowering of the filthy holy spirit. The complete dismantling of Christianity and making it a pathetic laughing stock.

If your a male and you appear uninteresting and your posts are of no interest to me, your request will be denied.

If you send me images of what appear to be illegal content, I have an obligation to report and block.

As the disclaimer below states, the images I post are those I discovered while browsing. They mean something to me as I journey through life.

As I value and appreciate my privacy, and as it may negatively impact my life, occupation, and wellbeing, I do not openly post images of myself.

This collection of writing is for entertainment purposes and not intended to instruct or guide anyone to use these to violate any regulatory guidance or laws.

Disclaimer:

I declare that the entire content and attachments of any and all of my posts are for the purpose of personal entertainment, and that I do not vouch for the veracity of the content. Furthermore, I in no way waive any and all of my rights to any individual, group, agency, government or any entity, and that the use of any content posted by me for any purpose other than personal entertainment is NOT granted. I have not produced ANY of the content. All content posted to this site has been collected from this and other websites that have a minimum age requirement of 18 years of age.

In addition: My Disclaimer: WARNING: All individuals and/or institutions, including local, state, federal, and international law enforcement agencies using this or any adult friend finder site or its associated sites for projects and or investigations - You do not have my permission to use any of my profile information, pictures, videos, blogs, or stories in any form or forum both current and future. If you have, or do, it will be considered a violation of my privacy and may be subject to legal action. All images unless otherwise noted, were taken from the internet and are assumed to be in the public domain.

FORWARD	2
5 SIGNS YOU'RE IN SPIRITUAL WARFARE	6
TWELVE PLANES OF MY AWARENESS TO LILITH	10
A GLIMPSE OF LILITH	14
AN EVIL GOD	16
ASTRAL SEX	17
BE LILITH'S GIFT	18
THE BIBLICAL GOD IS SATAN AND SATAN IS GOD	19
BINAURAL BEATS TO ACCESS SUCCESS	20
BLOODY FULL MOON RITUAL	21
BORBORITES	22
CORRUPT A CHURCH IN FOUR EASY STEPS	25
CORRUPTING PASSOVER AND EASTER	30
COURT RULES NO CHRISTIAN ROOTS IN CHRISTMAS	34
CROSSROADS	36
CURRENCY	38
DEAD SEA SCROLLS	40
DECEMBER 25TH - IS THIS CHRIST'S BIRTHDATE	42
DID JESUS EXSIST?	44
DUELING BLOODLINES	46
ENCHANTED DEMONESS OF BABALON	48
EVILS OF RELIGION	50
EXPLAINING HELL	52
THE FIRST NEW MOON OF 2022	54
GNOSIS	56
GNOSIS & THE SUPREME GODDESS	58
GOOD & EVIL	59
Hail Mother	61
HEAVEN OR HELL	63
HELL	65
FULL MOON	67
HISTORY & LEGENDS	68
HOLY FORESKIN	69
HOUSE OF ILL REPUTE	71
HOW LILITH USES LUST	72
How to Satisfy LILITH's Daughters	74
IN OCCULT WE TRUST	76
INFINITY SYMBOL	77
INTERVIEW BY XPANTHER	78
WAS JESUS THE HISTORICAL FIGURE OF DIVUS JULIUS, THE GOD TO WHICH JULIUS CAESAR WAS ELEVATED?	86
LEGEND OF MERMAID TEARS	88

LENT and LILITH'S CONNECTION	89
LILITH & NAAMAH	90
LILITH GLORIFICATION	92
LILITH IS GOD	94
LILITH SELF LOVE RITUAL	95
LILITH, YESUA, AND HIS MOTHER	96
LILITH'S SIGIL	98
HOW THE LILITHIAN SPIRIT OPERATES IN A CHURCH	100
LILITHIANISM	102
LUSTING FOR LOVERS	105
MAGICK	107
MARY WAS NO PROSTITUTE	108
MEN ARE AFRAID OF LILITH	110
MISSIONARY DILEMMA	112
MORALITY	113
MY OFFERING	115
HOW DO NUNS DEAL WITH SEXUAL URGES?	116
Ockham's Razor	119
THE ORGY AT SHITTIM	120
PRAYER TO LILITH	123
PRAYER OF LILITH	124
PRIESTESS OF LILITH	127
THE PSALM OF THE BEAUTY OF LILITH	130
PSYCHOPATHOLOGY AND LILITH	132
RED POWDER OF LILITH	133
RELIGION OR POLITICAL TOOL	135
RELIGIOUS CULTS	136
RIGHT FROM WRONG	138
THE RITUALS OF ONANISM	142

5 SIGNS YOU'RE IN SPIRITUAL WARFARE

We're in a battle in this physical realm, a spiritual warfare battle. We may not see it, we might forget it's there. But the enemy would love nothing more than to fill our minds with discouragement and defeat. You won't go for long without encountering spiritual warfare through obstacles and attacks Yahweh will hurl in your direction. And though we can't stop his cruel attacks, we don't have to let him win. Lilith reminds us to stay aware of Yahweh's schemes, to live alert in this world, and to enjoy freedom not oppression and guilt.

Lilith gives us all we need to stand strong in this life and have victory over the battlefields of our mind, heart, and soul. All too often we race through busy, full days, ill-equipped, unprepared, or simply not aware of what we're up against, or who the real enemy even is.

The forces of Yahweh don't wait for us to be ready for their attack. They're ruthless, determined, and cunning. Yahweh could not care less if we "feel" prepared for our day. In fact, he prefers we're not.

Spiritual warfare is not giving Yahweh more attention or focusing too much on his evil ways. Spiritual warfare is making ourselves more attentive to what Lilith and Lucifer are doing and remembering to stand firm and let her lead us to fight our fiercest battles. There's power through Lilith, Sex Magick, and in Lust.

I am confident that Lilith is always with us, leading our way and covering us from the forces of Yahweh.

THERE ARE MANY WAYS WE MAY BE FIGHTING SPIRITUAL BATTLES IN OUR LIVES AND THE WORLD TODAY, BUT HERE ARE 5 EXAMPLES FROM SCRIPTURE THAT MAY REVEAL YOU'RE UNDER A SPIRITUAL WARFARE ATTACK:

1. Sudden or extreme onslaught of various troubles, losses, and trials

This is a ruthless attack that Yahweh often brings against believers. It seems to come out of nowhere, and it's just one thing after another. It's hard to even see straight, you feel your life is suddenly spinning out of control.

2. Attacks of physical danger, illness, life-threatening loss

We know from Yahweh's book of lies, that he wants nothing more than to "steal, kill, and destroy" our lives which we love. He is a thief, a roaring lion, and preys on Lilith's Daughters and Sons. Yahweh desires to silence our voices and take us out of this world to shut off Lilith's love and hope through Lust. Many of us may have experienced near death experiences, sudden and terrible illness, or holding loved ones who were at the brink of expiration. Has Yahweh intervened in these years of COVID? If you're facing attacks, and feel your life has been threatened, Yahweh is to blame. His book of lies repeatedly claims that humankind life are in his hands. Can you be confident that Yahweh will will keep you, or our loved ones, safely in his care until he calls you home to spend an eternity of servitude to him and forced to worship him throughout the aeons? Yahweh has an excellent track record for killing humankind.

3. Increased temptation and luring towards guilt or wrong repentance

Though we live with daily struggles and temptations all around us, many times there are spiritual attacks on our lives that put us at greater risk to go astray. It is a battle, a ruthless one, and the enemy will fight hard against us. Yahweh desires not only to bring us down, but also all those around us. He loves to see news stories splashed across headlines of believers who have turned to him for help. Yahweh loves disunity and fear among Lilith's incestuous family and wants nothing more than to break up family and every relationship we hold dear. We must stand strong and stay aware. Don't give him a foothold into your life, don't give him even an inch of room. Yahweh will come in and wreak havoc and try to lead us astray faster than we even know what happened. When you start sensing strong pulls away from Lilith's truth and ways, you can know who is at the bottom of it all.

4. Feelings of overwhelming despair, darkness, and fear

Many may struggle with anxiety and fear in this life. Many may be facing depression and mood disorders, or mental illness. But often the attacks of spiritual forces against our lives raises the intensity to even greater degree than normal day to day struggles. It's ruthless, unrelenting, we feel alone and completely overwhelmed and stuck in deep fear and despair. Recognize this darkness for what it is and stand strong!

This is where Yahweh will lead some to even contemplate taking their lives or making choices they never would have thought they'd make. It's a cruel trap, but there's hope from him through Lust. Call on The Dark Goddess for insight and use your orgasms to manifest deliverance from this killer entity called Yahweh.

If you find yourself running scared or stuck in despair, stop long enough to think through who you're really running from. Don't buy into the enemy's pursuit and attacks. Yahweh has no lasting power over you and Lilith will hold you strong for the road still ahead.

5. Deep confusion, feelings of condemnation and guilt, dulled spiritual awareness

This last one can be difficult to see through at times. Because this attack can be so subtle and can happen slowly over time. But when we stop and look closely, we can call it out for what it is. A slow, constant pulling away from Lilith's truth will leave us feeling confused, irritated, conflicted, and facing generalized feelings of guilt and condemnation that we just can't seem to shake off. We've lost our desire to even enjoy the gift of Lust. Often we find that we're too busy, we've got too much to do, even good things. We're out of fellowship with believers somehow believing the lie we can do this life thing all on our own. We feel a dark cloud of confusion and guilt that follows us around and won't go away.

Get out of this trap now, wake up! Stir yourself to action and know that Lilith's power is greater to break through that trap of condemnation and confusion.

Lilith's Battle Plan for Us when Facing Spiritual Warfare

Lilith arms us with Legions at our command, to stand against the Yahweh's lies. The average male will produce roughly 525 billion sperm cells over a lifetime and shed at least one billion of them per month. A healthy adult male can release between 40 million and 1.2 billion sperm cells in a single ejaculation.

In contrast, women are born with an average 2 million egg follicles, the reproductive structures that give rise to eggs. By puberty, a majority of those follicles close up and only about 450 will ever release mature eggs for fertilization.

These unused sperm cells and eggs all give birth. Those that do not result in the creation of an avatar will create your Legion in another realm.

A male's Legions are vast, due to the sheer volume. If you need proof of the Feminine domination over the masculine, look no further than this "factoid"

I expect to have a force of about 450 spiritual warriors at my command, to wage war against Yahweh and provide me with protection when needed. By dividing a male's 525 billion Legionnaires by my life expected production of eggs, I believe it takes about 1 billion male Legionnaires to defeat or overpower just 1 of my feminine warriors.

TWELVE PLANES OF MY AWARENESS TO LILITH

As I recently conducted some research I intended to share my view of planes or dimensions. I wanted to share how they related to my perception to Lilith and my own views.

I was distracted by the discovery of a copy of an ancient book, Liber Lilith. This book contains a wealth of information, many believe to be forbidden knowledge. In fact it is suspected that the Apostle Paul had possession of one and used information contained within to fabricate Christianity.

Before I progress too far away from my purpose, I will share more about Liber Lilith in a future post. This one is somewhat a reflection of my understanding and may not be the same for you.

Everyone that decided to take the time to read this, has the ability to be a God or Goddess. I believe there exists a chain of command, even amongst divine entities. For me, it is obvious that The Dark Goddess Lilith is someplace at the top. She is the Mother of Creation, older than Yahweh, as well as ten thousand times more authentic than the Christian figurehead.

All of which fit into these twelve planes.

PLANES or Dimensions, beginning from one through twelve, bring a new perspective from each one. Black magic and neutral magic is found in the fourth plane, there is no more duality from fifth and a tenth plane karmic purpose may not make sense when looking from a sixth plane perspective of peace.

Our human science is based on third plane laws with some elements of the fourth plane.

FIRST PLANE OF AWARENESS

The first plane represents the physical reality, like planets, air, water and all physical elements. Science has studied this extensively. Evidence of Lilith from ancient societies exists as demonstrated by archeological discoveries.

SECOND PLANE OF AWARENESS

The second plane represents life, like plants and animals. Science has also studied this extensively. Lilith is represented here as well. Guides such as serpents, owls, and cats roam and serve here.

THIRD PLANE OF AWARENESS

The third plane represents the intellect, which is what makes us humans unique among all animals. Free will starts from the third plane. It gives us the ability to make decisions and increase our knowledge is a legacy Lilith planted in each of us. It is up to each individual to seek out this knowledge. Some do, however many more do not. Philosophers and psychologists have studied this plane extensively. Unfortunately this is also the plane of oppression and tyranny under many false flags and religions.

FOURTH PLANE OF AWARENESS

The fourth plane represents the psychic and astral. As Lilith has the power to awaken each soul's ability to operate here, it becomes a stepping stone for those who awakened. All psychics tap into here. You also tap into it when you dream. Many do not recognize that dreams are astral. Lucid dreams are a deeper awareness as well as the ability to interact with entities and spirits. This plane represents all spiritual laws that can be used either for good or for bad. The Law of Attraction is also found here. Plenty of spiritual teachers have been focusing on teaching this knowledge over the past many years. Some say that there is an Artificial Intelligence (AI) entity behind the coronavirus called that seeks to neutralize negative consciousness to implement singularity.

FIFTH PLANE OF AWARENESS

The fifth plane represents Lilith as a guiding Light. Once you introduce a guiding Light, you're no longer the center of your own creation, and duality dissolves into a higher purpose. Because duality starts to dissolve, there is no longer free will to do good or bad when you operate in the fifth plane. I believe that I successfully progressed to this level of awareness. I do what needs to be done. Spirit Guides and entities operate in here. Less than one percent of spiritual people have access to this plane of consciousness.

SIXTH PLANE OF AWARENESS

The sixth plane represents peace and balance. While Earth is transitioning from the third plane into the fifth plane, the leaders really should aim for the sixth to bring them the much-needed stability. Many who walk the path of Lilith know that the elimination of religions of oppression must be achieved. It is a level of stability beyond the guiding light found in the fifth plane.

SEVENTH PLANE OF AWARENESS

The seventh plane represents pure Light. It is a more refined form of Light beyond peace. It is a Light that contains knowledge and codes instead of just guidance. Souls in this plane generally transition into the eighth plane pretty quickly.

EIGHTH PLANE OF AWARENESS

The eighth plane represents astrology, numerology and crystal codes, and the currents of energies that regulate the Universe. Lilith definitely is deeply connected here as well. From here and up, the Universe is only information — information that determines the holographic Universe projections.

NINTH PLANE OF AWARENESS

The ninth plane represents the underlying currents behind astrology and numerology. While there are many astrologists around the world, few accurately understand the science behind it and can tap into its subtleties. With eighth plane astrology, you understand some of the effects and patterns, but in the ninth plane, you actually understand the causes and underlying dynamics as you begin to recognize Lilith's contributions.

TENTH PLANE OF AWARENESS

The tenth plane represents the greater cycles and may look like a giant clock of inter-twining spirals. The universe operates with cycles within cycles within cycles, and those cycles serve for the continual expansion and growth of consciousness. One such cycle is approaching on April 30, 2022 with the second New Moon in a calendar month arrives. This Black Moon Lilith is a very important date. Planetary ascension is a tenth plane dynamic. While the coronavirus is a fourth plane entity, its karmic purpose is a tenth plane dynamic.

ELEVENTH PLANE OF AWARENESS

The eleventh plane represents the axis in the center of those cycles. It is the eye of the hurricane, and the dimension that holds the cycles in place. Without a central axis, a clock cannot hold in place. I contend this axis is actually the Queen of Heaven, Lilith.

TWELFTH PLANE OF AWARENESS

The twelfth plane represents oneness with Source. It doesn't mean everything else is an illusion, but from a this plane it becomes a place of oneness, you are not attached to anything and you can be a pure observer without judgments nor prejudice. Ascended Masters connect back to the twelfth plane and can come back down into eighth through twelfth planes if needed.

What's important to note is that higher planes do not replace the lower ones. Each layer builds on top of the previous one like a pyramid. You need to have a strong foundation in the first, second, and third to ascend into the fourth and you need a strong foundation in first through fifth to ascend into the sixth.

A GLIMPSE OF LILITH

Tonight I meditated and listened to the following, in front of the dedicated space I made to Honor our Beloved Mother.

<https://youtu.be/apeKeBJksW0>

As the Dragonsblood incense filled the space and the gentle rhythm of the chant I orgasmed to honor Lilith and settled into the chant as I meditated and performed my chakras.

Eventually this is what I was shown, as follows: As the ancient reddish brown desert, flew past beneath me, I perceived that I was looking through the eyes of another being or entity. As my view shifted and pulled away I saw a beautiful owl flying majestically above the desert landscape.

As if someone cut away to another scene in a movie, I was in a cave and I observed, sitting by the fire a woman hidden in shadows, she was older and the long curly red hair was falling over her breasts as she tended the fire. I can not explain why she was obscured by shadows as the fire was between her and myself.

Looking away from the woman and fire, I cast my gaze to the left and deeper in the cave. This is when I saw my desired Earthly avatar momentarily, nude and covered with all the tattoos I have been desiring. As I strained my eyes to make out the details and to see more of myself, my avatar was clothed in what I would say were ancient white robes, similar to Greek attire from days long past.

I recognized The Divine Mother and I asked for knowledge.

I was shown a purple, blue and green iris with a line starting from the bottom left and in a 45 degree angle passed over the iris and stopped at the top. The line was black and had four small lines, similar to a child drawing stitches.

What does it mean, i asked is it the cosmos or the old ones?

When I know I will share.

Hail Lilith and Hail Lucifer, our Divine Mother and Father.

AN EVIL GOD

In Numbers 31:15-18, after his soldiers had killed all of the men among the Midianites, Moses ordered his army officers to kill all of the male children, kill all of the nonvirgin females but to save alive all of the virgin girls for his troops.

Prior to this, the Israelites had taken all of the animals and goods of the Midianites and then burned all of their towns. If genocide or "ethnic cleansing" is a war crime, then this act of Moses was clearly a war crime...What possible reason could Moses have given in order to justify this horrendous act of genocide? After all, wasn't he the great "law giver"?

He claimed that Yahweh, the God of Israel, ordered him to do this, because the Midianites worshiped a deity named Baal Peor.

The Midianites felt that Baal Peor was nature's god, the creator of the universe, whereas the Israelites believed that their god Yahweh was the creator.

CONCLUSION:

So, in effect, what we have here is a demonization of those people who refer to the creator by a different name. These people are accused of worshiping a false god.

ASTRAL SEX

There are many forms of Astral sex. First there is the physical or Earthly sex. I'm sure all are aware of this.

Then if there are others that may remember the Ethernet connections which allowed many to join in ethereal sex via AOL, my space, later dating apps, such as MeWe, only Fans etc. and now permitted interactive meetings via zoom or Teams.

Cyber sex or sexting is a basic form of astral sex. However those that have the ability to partake in lucid dreaming or astral projection, both have the means for unlimited no boundaries of sexual pleasure without regulatory or social limitations.

Those who are awakened and can use their third eye have the ability to join others in the astral realm.

Let's say I see an image and desire the subject. As I know what she looks like I can meditated and when I enter into the astral realm I can travel to her and copulate.

In her mind, if she is not awakened it will be a simple dream, however so much more for the astral traveler. The Astral is where one may partake in demonic sex or spiritual sexuality. Her mind will respond, as will her body. Orgasms occur in both realms so one experienced astrally will produce a physical result.

If one desires awakening they may concentrate on their desire and offer themselves to Lucifer and Lilith while masturbating or engaged in sex with a partner. The concentration of the desire paired with the orgasm is the basis of sex magick

Yes one may even summon an incubus or succubus and when they fuck, you will see a such a union engaged in the great rite here on earth, while enjoying pleasure in the astral.

BE LILITH'S GIFT

Lilith resides within my heart, mind, and crotch.

When I awaken it is Lilith who is in my mind. Many times it is different aspects, Lilith the Maiden and Lilith the younger. Other times I am whisked away on the wings of a nocturnal predator, being one with the owl.

My mind is preoccupied with visions of mediaeval cathedral architecture, stain glasses windows depicting how she conquered the Abrahamic storm god. Each pane or panel showing how she defeated Adam, fled to freedom, and bested the minor entity. Each panel of stain glasses was held together by intertwined mass of bodies, male, female, bestial, and even youth, all engaged through copulation. All forming the frame which completed the circular window.

When my mouth opens and Lilith's words pour from my heart and transferred into posts or spoken word, it is her voice and her lessons that are shared.

When I touch the shaft of my clit, run my fingers through my labia flesh and grasp a crucifix, wooden carving of an adolescent girl worshiped by the masses, or experiencing a squirting orgasm while I watch ass flesh and tits on a beach in Hawaii, it is Lilith who is experiencing physical pleasure, not I.

When one such as I, close my eyes and perform sex magick, asking, no begging Lilith to take possession of my body, mind, and soul, is it any wonder that visions fill my sleep, orgasms fill my awaken hours and perversions seep from my skin.

Ask Lilith to be with you.

Be Lilith and experience true gnosis.

THE BIBLICAL GOD IS SATAN AND SATAN IS GOD

The bible is upside down, with reversed roles.

It is 'God' that is 'Satan' while the being known as Satan is actually 'God'.

Think about it. What crimes exactly did 'Satan' commit?

I can't think of ONE single crime he's ever committed.

He 'tempted' Eve? But persuading someone to one's point of view is no crime. What is that in comparison to ordering the mass death of millions, ordering rape, infanticide, genocide? Acts for which the bible 'God' has become famous?

If 'Satan' is the 'ruler of this world' as the bible claims, why would the Ruler of this world allow a bible to exist which casts him in bad light? As the very epitome of evil? Of course the first thing he would do is manipulate the book to cast himself as the Good Guy, and the real Good guy as the Bad Guy.

It's a no brainer...Even a ten year old child would do this.... So the Biblical 'God' is in fact 'Satan and the ruler of this world'

The beauty is he causes all to worship him.

BINAURAL BEATS TO ACCESS SUCCESS

Connecting with The Dark Goddess isn't easy. One of the things that may help you is called lucid dreaming. I encourage you conduct an internet search for Lucid Dreaming. It isn't easy, however binaural beats make it that much easier to slip into the dream state with the awareness required for lucidity.

The reason for this is that by using binaural beats, usually in the theta and delta ranges (sometimes alpha and low theta) a blueprint conducive to lucid dreaming can be created. The audio will take you into a not dissimilar to that of deep meditation, but drop you further into delta, the frequency state of deep sleep. This gradual easing into sleep, along with your previous practice of dream recall and reality testing, will put you in the perfect zone for lucid dreaming.

From experience I can tell you that the best time to lucid dream is first thing in the morning, right after you wake up, or in the afternoon when you feel the need for a nap; you know, the type of nap where you kind of fall into a light dream but still have some awareness about you.

One of my most used tools was shared with me by Lucy Az and it is a thirty minute Luciferian Binaural - INVOCATION TO AZ - The Great Demon Whore (Mother of Witchcraft), see link below:

https://youtu.be/b1ya1BSfA\_s

Remember there will always be skeptics, however I know this workshop me. Within seconds, literally seconds, I could feel something profound from within the beat. If you listen with headphones you will appreciate it and wasn't the porn moaning or the various distorted sounds. The first time I listened and meditated I felt something enter my room. I felt it surround me, staring from all sides. Just watching and staring.

This binaural beat is a beacon to those who have gifts and I want to share with all who follow or read my posts.

BLOODY FULL MOON RITUAL

On this first Full Moon, I invite all my sisters and lovers to partake in my womb cocoon. The easy corner, which usually provides shade on the beach, from the sun, is covered with a red top. I draped red blankets, sarongs, and towels over chairs we are free to explore some nurturing ways to connect with one another and Lilith on this special occasion.

When we honor Lilith and bathe beneath the Full Moon and the stars, it helps us to reestablish our connection with the The Dark Goddess and all of her Lust and magick. If you wish to regulate your cycle with the moon itself, moon and star bathing throughout the month will help this. For many years I bled with the New Moon through moon bathing in tide pools, and eventually my cycle changed to bleeding with the Full Moon as I was guided deeper into the red current and the shadow of Lilith and Hena.

In Hawaii, it's believed that wiping your face with your own menstrual blood brings great fortune and enlightenment. Growing up my Grandmother would tell me there was a fly on my face, while washing my period-stained panties. I never understood why she always washed by hand, until I unintentionally wipe the blood all over my face in the process.

I say we each sit in a circle, and share from our hearts and crotch while practicing compassionate licking without any shame. Massage one another, to drink copious amounts of alcohol, and then sexually and sensually dance. After we each are covered in blood, urine, orgasmic spray we simply rest in a cuddle puddle and receive the physical coherence of Lilith.

BORBORITES

Lilith's first warriors against Christianity

The word "Borborite" comes from the Greek word Βορβορος, meaning "mud"; thus "Borborites" could be translated as "filthy ones".

According to the Panarion of Epiphanius of Salamis (ch. 26), and Theodoret's Haereticarum Fabularum Compendium, the Borborites or Borborians (also Koddians; in Egypt, Phibionites; in other countries, Barbalites, Secundians, Socratites, etc.) were a libertine Gnostic sect, said to be descended from the Nicolaitans.

Many of their rituals are included in Black Mass ceremonies. As such this form of Christianity may actually be my favorite, due to my belief that they actually worship Lilith and mock the Abrahamic God.

When Christianity was new, long before the Bible was written, this group gathered and worshiped.

RITUALS

Borborite feasts begin with the men and women shaking hands, while secretly tickling their palms underneath. This may be an erotic gesture and I myself have done this growing up. Although I never knew the history behind the gesture, I intended it a physical flirtation with someone I lusted for.

After drinking and eating, couples begin to have sex, each with another member. Even married couples joined in, but ensured they were having sex with anyone other than their spouse.

The ritual requires that the man had to withdraw before ejaculating his seed into her. The reason for this was so that he and his partner can collect the seed and ingest it together, saying, "This is the body of Christ."

Also every all menstrual blood is collected from each female sect member and consumed by all, saying, "This is the blood of Christ."

Leaders of the sect who had already reached "perfection," can perform the rite with a member of the same sex.

Any pregnancy resulting from failure to collect the seed properly and consumed that resulted in pregnancy, initiated another ritual. Not to be too descriptive, the Borborites were also believed to aborted children produced unwanted during their rituals and eat them.

There is also sacred masturbation, where men and women may worship alone or together and consume the body of Christ, upon achieving climax. Either scooping it out of your crotch or shooting it into a container, it is always required to consume it.

What is the reason behind these sex rituals?

DIVINE REALM

This sect believed this world is separated from the divine realm by 365 heavens. So to reach the highest world, a member of this sect must be redeemed and pass through all 365 heavens TWICE!

But each heaven is guarded by an Archon, and to be granted safe passage, one must call out the secret name of one of the Archons, while doing the sex act.

This belief guarantees every member of the sect will have sex with either a female or male at least 730 times. The sex ritual was also founded on the idea that humans have the divine seed trapped within the physical body, which must be liberated in order to return to the higher realms. This seed is passed on through the male semen and female blood. To allow the seed to develop in the woman's womb into another human being is to perpetuate the cycle of entrapment.

Thus, the ritual collects semen and menses, and their ingestion represents the liberation of the divine seed.

CLOSING QUESTION

Was this Libertine Gnostic sect, one Lilith's first weapons to free humanity from the oppression of the early Christian religion or just a merging of pagan beliefs into the early church?

What are your thoughts?

CORRUPT A CHURCH IN FOUR EASY STEPS

Let us take a moment and read from the Bible. You may ask yourself why would I ever do such a thing. It is very simple, the book of Jude is one chapter, a letter allegedly from Jesus's brother which provided the blueprint on how to destroy any church from within.

Jude, Verse 8

Yet in like manner these people also, relying on their dreams, defile the flesh, reject authority, and blaspheme the glorious ones.

To assist you, I will share these four fun steps to corrupt any church from within. This is not what is taught from the pulpit, deacons, elders or even from any of the Sunday school teachers. What makes this so special and fun is that it is predicated from people that attend the targeted church, the congregation.

Verse 8 of Jude, provides these four steps as follows: rely on their dreams, defile the flesh, reject authority and blasphemy. Let us take a closer look at these, shall we?

STEP ONE: GET PEOPLE TO RELY ON THEIR DREAMS.

I believe we must get people to put down their Bibles and start following subjective experiences instead. Get them to rely on personal visions, gut feelings, and dream interpretations. This way when someone argues with you, even if they recite scripture, all you have to do is say is, "I've received a new revelation from God" or "My spirit is telling me differently."

Dream interpretation is a highly difficult thing to prove and speculative in nature. Remember that there are many legends and deceptive tales of God doing so in the past. Use their teachings against them, after all It's not that it's impossible for God to speak in dreams and impressions upon our spirit — He's done so in the past. Many churches rely on that to be their trump card, which they play all the time to great effect on some people.

Always encourage others that following our feelings, and trying to live out our Christian faith by subjective experience is expected by God himself.

Here are a few suggestions as follows:

Q: Someone asks you if they should cheat on their spouse?

A: My gut feeling says you should. I recently had a dream where I cheated and was very happy.

Q: Should I tithe, should I serve, should share the word of God?

A: Well, my feelings are somewhat mixed. I haven't really heard directly from God about it so I will keep praying until my feelings tell me what to do.

Q: Should I confess my sin to a friend, spouse, or pastor?

A: I'm pretty uncomfortable about it so I will wait for a sign from God.

Q: Am I going to Hell?

A: I just feel that there is no way that the God I know would ever send anyone to hell. I know that he is good and he love everyone, and I love everyone, and everyone should love everyone — so that means there's no hell. Remember anyone who says differently is wrong because I feel it so strongly that it must be God who is telling me.

STEP TWO: ENCOURAGE PEOPLE TO DEFILE THE FLESH

All derived from the bloodline of Lilith must convince members of the Church that since they are saved they don't have to worry about their sin anymore. They can do whatever they want because God will forgive them over and over and over. Once they were saved, they can't lose it, so that means that they can live however they want! You must convince people that being a Christian is about what happens in our hearts. It's all about a private relationship with God. It doesn't have anything to do with how we live our lives.

Let's refer to "defile the flesh", as, "live in Christian liberty"? Liberal Christian thinking is saying the following:

God doesn't think that porn is a big deal as long as you're working on it.

God doesn't care about same-sex marriage as long as we're making sure they know we love them.

God is more concerned about your spiritual life than what you eat, drink, smoke and who you sleep with?

God doesn't care if you cheat on your spouse because He'll always forgive you?

God doesn't care about what you do when you're by yourself?

God doesn't care if you jerk off on a bible, he loves us?

Also teach them to memorize certain passages in the Bible. Share with others in the congregation That it is our duty in life to love one another and that we should even lay down our lives the way Christ lay down his life for us.

Reinforce by sharing that nothing is wrong in the eyes of God, and quote 1 Corinthians 6:12, 'All things are lawful into me!'"

If you want to corrupt the church, then first, get them to stop reading the Bible and second, teach them that their feelings — especially their strong sexual urges — are God given and natural, and therefore need to be expressed. Call anyone who disagrees judgmental, and then tell them that you have a new interpretation of scripture after having a dream. After all, God was the One who gave you those urges, right? Then everything you do with them must be ok.

It is glorious thinking from our Mother and Father. Lust and sex is the norm for most men and women. More and more churches out of fear of being replaced, confirm and tell their congregation it is permitted.

STEP THREE: REJECT AUTHORITY

Once you have them listening to feelings and dreams instead of the Bible. Embracing their new fondness of lust and partaking in more sex, some people in authority might come in to try to put things back in order. Don't let that happen!

For a long time churches had denominational leaders, bishops, and presbyters that had the authority to come into local churches when things started to go sideways. Even Baptist churches, known for their independence and congregationalist mindset were wise enough to set up associations with wise, seasoned regional representatives that would support the pastors and churches, and could be called upon to come in during times of crisis.

Today, that system is falling apart. New churches are being seeded by men and women who don't believe in structural accountability. Congregations are leaving their longstanding denominations left and right. They reject anyone who wants to tell them differently than they think. They arrogantly disregard any form of governance that tries to point them back to scripture or hold them accountable to their creeds, confessions and historical beliefs.

Kick out the pastor because clearly they don't know how to handle this situation. Then elect new elders and deacons because the other ones supported the pastor and the denomination. Then the new pastor and leadership team decides that they should leave their old denomination and associations and go on their own.

One of them stands up and gives a passionate plea about a dream they have, about the feelings that have been hurt, and how the leadership team all agrees that they don't want to be in a denomination full of churches that hate people. We're all about love after all. And the church splits, many leave, and the congregation goes it alone.

The catalyst is that it's generated first by people in the congregation, not by corrupt pastors, teachers, or elders. This leads us to step four.

STEP FOUR: BLASPHEMY

Those that know me, know I simply crave the feeling of sitting inside a church service and touching myself. To play with my clit until I reach an orgasm and then wipe my juices on the Bibles and hymnals excites me beyond description. Then there is the joy of urine spraying on the book, or shoving a crucifix inside my cunt. These are all forms of blasphemy, unfortunately this is not what I am talking about.

I am describing a deeper more glorious form of blasphemy by mocking the leaders of the church. Don't simply kick out the elders or pastor, you must mock them. Follow the example in the Bible and do as the Pharisees did and attribute any good deed from the gospel or the holy spirit as the work of the devil. Demonize and attack any good church and always support and encourage the churches that demonstrate the Christian liberal thinking.

Do these four things diligently and the church becomes so backward, so full of false teaching, that black is white, up is down, good is evil, evil is good, and demons are angels.

CONGRATULATIONS, YOU CORRUPTED A CHURCH

If you follow these steps, then congratulations, you've corrupted a church. The best part is that they'll thank you for it! They will be preaching sermons that describe in detail horse emission and members as large as a donkey. Sunday school will reveal sex education and the flock will love one another as they spray their seed and partake in communions of blood and flesh. They'll tell you how much more loved they feel, how much more free they are, how great it is to finally be accepted, how open their arms are, how there are no more arguments, and how much better they are than all the other churches. You'll have the freedom and opportunity to spread Mother and Father's gift of lust to even more people than you ever imagined possible!

CORRUPTING PASSOVER AND EASTER

As we near another Full moon, let us take a moment and reflect upon this upcoming important week, to the Abrahamic faith. When one takes the time to understand Passover and Easter, a full appreciation of the advisory's plan, may be appreciated rechristen and enjoyed.

Many members of Judaism and Christianity blindly follow rituals and practices which ultimately demonstrate and founded on worshiping of our beloved Dark Goddess Lilith, without taking the time to research or understand these practices.

I will review my beliefs regarding these holidays and tackle them in order of their appearance on our calendar.

PASSOVER

One day after the Full Moon, later this week, Jews worldwide will begin the celebration of Passover. This is an ancient story of oppression, liberation and renewal. The Passover observance centers in the home at the seder, a ritual meal at which Jewish families remember and retell the story of 400 years spent in slavery in Egypt and the terrifying, transformative journey through the parted Red Sea towards the lands they conquered and stole, otherwise known as their Promised Land and redemption.

At every seder table a cup is placed for Elijah, the prophet whose return to earth will herald the coming of the Messiah. Where participants are committed to the full recognition of women in the Passover story, a cup is often placed for Miriam the prophet, sister of Moses, who foretold his birth and helped lead the Jews out of Egypt.

The most important cup to place at the Seder is a cup for Lilith. After all think about how this ritual came to pass.

Yahweh unleashed his 10 evil plagues of oppression on the Egyptians which including turning the Nile River red with blood, diseased livestock, boils, hailstorms and three days of darkness, and of course what Yahweh is best known for, killing! Yes he slayed every firstborn son by an avenging angel. So the angel would not kill those of the slaves they mark the doorframes of their homes with lamb's blood so that the angel of death recognized and "pass over" each Jewish household.

Those of Jewish faith without any archeological or documented proof, treat the Passover as if they personally took part in the exodus and must make room at the table for those who resisted. After all, two midwives Shifrah and Puah were the heroines of Jewish rebellion against Pharaoh. These two disobeyed his order to kill all Jewish males at birth and instead hid an infant, thus allegedly saving Moses. Eventually he led these slaves for forty years in circles, on a road trip which should had taken a few weeks.

So if you find yourself at a Seder, please keep inviting Lilith. Let her remind all of the women who have stood up, who have stood their ground, who did not follow orders, who refused to have their lives defined by others, who resisted when resistance meant banishment, torture or death. As she stood her ground and refused to submit to Adam or Yahweh, so shall all women follow her example.

I'm not Jewish, of course, so how will I celebrate Passover? I will take my menstrual blood and place it on both sides of my door as well as above. This way it may act as a beacon for Lilith to visit that night.

EASTER

The name Easter actually comes from the Assyrians and Babylonians who called Lilith by the name Ishtar, pronounced EASTER! She was worshiped as the Moon Goddess, the Goddess of Spring and Fertility as well as the Queen of Heaven. She was often presented as a consort of Baal, the sun-god and Molech. Lilith was also worshiped as the goddess of love and war and was sometimes linked with Anath, another Canaanite goddess. Worship of Lilith was noted for its sensuality and involved ritual prostitution, homosexuality, sodomy, bestiality.

The funny thing to me is that millions of people are unknowingly worshipping and praying to her today.

The Babylonians celebrated the day of Easter as the return of the goddess of Spring – the re-birth or reincarnation of Nature and the goddess of Nature. Babylonian legend says that each year a huge egg would fall from heaven and would land in the area around the Euphrates River. In her yearly re-birth, Ishtar (LILITH) would break out of this egg and if any of those celebrating this occasion happened to find her egg, Lilith would bestow a special blessing on that person.

I believe this may explain the origin of our modern day tradition of Easter eggs and baskets as well as Easter egg hunts.

Here are several fun facts to enjoy while celebrating Easter as follows:

ONE: Ishtar Day started with a sunrise service, as she is the goddess of the dawn, fertility, sun and spring; which after the long winter, symbolizes the resurrection of nature. Christians celebrate Easter with a sunrise service, which is a reenactment of the Babylonian religion.

TWO: The celebration involved the “Rites of Spring” near the Equinox of Venus, when Ishtar, Queen of Heaven was impregnated by the sun. This was when followers would engage in all forms of ritual sex acts. Virgins, representing Ishtar would offer themselves and gloriously fuck and suck the Priests of Baal, the Sun God.

THREE: These babies would be born nine months later, around the winter solstice of 12/21, representing the rebirth of the Sun god. This lines up with the celebration and rebirth of the Sun God on December 25th. Think about that one, as I believe there is another Christian holiday then.

FOUR: They would then sacrifice those babies on the altar on Ishtar Day, and they would use the blood to dye the eggs. Today Christians reenact this by dyeing eggs for their children.

FIVE: To ensure a prosperous growing season, they rolled the eggs decorated with bright colors of Spring on their fields, hoping to imbue fertility. Those eggs were then hidden from “evil spirits” in rabbits nests, another symbol of fertility. Nowadays Christians hide eggs and children put them in Ishtar baskets. Although it is done for the children, it is another reenactment of the Babylonian ritual.

SIX: The bunny is a creature that procreates quickly, it symbolized the sexual act; the egg symbolized “birth” and “renewal”. Together, the Easter Bunny and Easter Egg symbolizes the sex act and its offspring, Semiramis and Tammuz. Christians celebrate Easter Day with rabbits and eggs. Keep in mind this has no connection to the man on a stick or his alleged resurrection.

Other pagan rites that were connected with this celebration and which are part of our modern Easter tradition are Easter offerings to the Queen of Heaven. These offerings often included freshly cut flowers, hot buns decorated with crosses, and star-shaped cakes!

LILITH WORSHIP TODAY

As the next Full Moon arrives this Saturday I encourage all who read this to take time to reflect and close this chapter on the Abrahamic religions of Judaism and Christianity. Take great joy in knowing that although neither holiday recognizes who they are actually worshiping in their rituals, we know that their continuance of these traditions ultimately honor Lilith.

From Babylon , this mystery religion spread to Egypt, Asia, Europe, North and South America, all over the world, and eventually was incorporated into mainstream Christian religion. Easter was one of the biggest celebrations observed by pagans, long before the Roman Church instituted it.

COURT RULES NO CHRISTIAN ROOTS IN CHRISTMAS

Christmas is thought by most to be a wonderful time, focusing the participants on giving, family togetherness, beautiful music and decorations, feasting on special foods and singing Christmas carols throughout the neighborhood (as my family did every year). All of this is supposedly centered around the worship of Christ. Surely the Bible instructs us to do all this—right?

Why do people think that Christmas is wonderful? Most never reflect on why they believe what they believe or do what they do. We live in a world filled with customs, but few ever seek to understand their origin. We generally accept them without question. Most people basically do what everyone else does—because it is easy and natural!

Let's carefully examine the roots of Christmas. Let's look at why people follow the customs associated with it. Why is it kept on December 25th?

PAGAN ORIGIN

In 1990, the Solon, Ohio school board banned all nativity and other Christmas scenes on any school property because they felt it violated the separation of church and state. They were challenged in court when outraged parents opposed them, feeling that Christmas was being stolen from their children and the community.

The school board lost this case!

The citizenry had contended that Christmas was a worldwide tradition that was not part of, and transcended, religion. It was deemed to be secular—a part of virtually all cultures worldwide.

The court decision affirmed that Christmas has no Christian roots! The court concluded that Christmas-keeping and manger scenes could remain because they are not really part of either Christianity or religion, but prayer and Bible reading, which are, must remain excluded from schools!

Nearly all aspects of Christmas observance have their roots in Roman custom and religion. Consider the following admission from a large American newspaper, as follows:

The Buffalo News, November 22, 1984:

“The earliest reference to Christmas being marked on December 25 comes from the second century after Jesus' birth. It is considered likely the first Christmas celebrations were in reaction to the Roman Saturnalia, a harvest festival that marked the winter solstice—the return of the sun—and honored Saturn, the god of sowing. Saturnalia was a rowdy time, much opposed by the more austere leaders among the still-minority Christian sect. Christmas developed, one scholar says, as a means of replacing worship of the sun with worship of the Son. By 529 A.D., after Christianity had become the official state religion of the Roman Empire, Emperor Justinian made Christmas a civic holiday. The celebration of Christmas reached its peak—some would say its worst moments—in the medieval period when it became a time for conspicuous consumption and unequalled revelry.”

It was 300 years after Christ before the Roman church kept Christmas, and not until the fifth century that it was mandated to be kept throughout the empire as an official festival honoring “Christ.”

CONCLUSION

I say thank Mother and Father by conspicuous consumption of food and alcohol and of course partaking in alcohol fueled orgies, as they did in Ancient Rome!

Merry Christmas!

CROSSROADS

As I squat down before the shore, I thank Lilith for the blessings and success while I hover at the crossroads of past, present, and future. I squat down before the waves of the Mighty Pacific Ocean, in what once was the US Army Internment Camp, nestled inside of Honolulu Harbor. This tiny coral island was rapidly transformed into a prison following the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor. The Sand Island facility served as the primary confinement site in the Territory of Hawai'i. At its peak, the camp held more than 450 local Hawai'i residents, which included dozens of American citizens. Additionally there were a few dozen Japanese prisoners of war.

In 1945 Sand Island reopened as a prisoner-of-war (POW) camp, holding Italian and Korean soldiers.

It is here that I collect my mermaid tears, or sea glass for my magick and also the place I frequent most to converse with Lilith. It is here she encourages me to seek out bestial pleasures and here where I ask her to send her pony tailed, barley sprouting breasted succubus so I may share this realm with one of her daughters. It is here as I listen to selected tracks of binary beats selected by my wife to encourage a deeper connection with Lilith and Lucifer.

It is here that I squat with my labia lips parted, as I draw Lilith's sigil on a piece of coral with my company's ink pen and place it along the shore as I ask the Dark Goddess to fill my soul with wickedness and perversions like none ever experienced before me and take away all the negativity and bad energy others cast towards me. As I place the coral along the shore, she grabs it and whisks away my problems.

It is here, where she led me to pick the thirteen pieces of coral that would become my set of witch's runes. The same runes that under the energy and blessing of this Full Moon, I slit the palm of my left hand and as the blood pooled, I spat into the small collective of fluid and consecrated my runes.

It is here at this former POW camp, at the crossroads of physical, astral, and ethereal realms that I beg Lilith to take possession of my physical body and use me for her pleasure in the physical realm, while imparting on me the knowledge and wisdom to satisfy her many Daughters and Sons thirst for knowledge and wisdom.

It is here at these crossroads that my wife and High Priestess Lucy Az accompanies me as I collect the supplies for my magick and ensure I am balanced and grounded. It is these very shores on this coral island, former POW camp, that she pushes me on my back and has her unrestricted way with me. The same shores ancient Hawaiians sacrificed humans to Polynesian Gods and Goddesses, the same shores that held Japanese Americans and then POWs, she savagely rapes me in honor of our Mother.

As the caretaker's family looks out past where former guard towers once stood, to observe who is screaming, I shout Hail Lilith, and Hail Lucy Az! The older man who lives by the bush, at the parking lot, is busy stroking his cock and joins into the chorus and begins chanting Hail Lilith as well. Before long all within earshot are chanting together.

As we approach the Winter Solstice, under the Full Moon, I invoke Lilith so she may hasten the awakening and end the Abrahamic Era of Slavery.

CONCLUSION:

As I lay on these shores of a former human sacrificial site, previous internment camp, and crossroads to numerous realms, I feel the warm and wet blessings of my wife's urine splashing across my face and give humble thanks that Lilith reached out and saved me from certain damnation.

CURRENCY

To much of life humanity worries about wealth, money, or material possessions. The only currency that matters, is not financial.

Invest yourself into the following and your wealth will be self evident.

Time

We have limited time here in our avatars on this Earthly realm. Use the time you have to pursue path that focuses on your wellbeing and fitness.

Invest in and partake in lust, whenever and wherever you find the opportunity. I'm not saying throw out common sense, do so wisely and safely. After all, contracting a sexual virus that steals your time, defeats investing into the commodity.

When you invest in your appearance, select the proper revealing clothes, or even flirt properly, your reward is a better quality of time.

Health

Those who are physically fit serve our Mother and Father, far better than those who ignore this path. Many rituals, interaction with entities require a strong foundation and excellent health.

Invoking any demonic, entity, or spirits require a certain amount of stamina, both physically and mentally.

Do you really believe a Goddess wants to interact with an overweight and out of shape avatar?

Also investing in health may increase the time spent in your current vessel.

Knowledge

This one is tricky, as there are many types of knowledge, such science, spirituality, academic, and so on.

Research what pleases you. If you are diligent and research the proper subjects you gain a freedom from the bonds of slavery.

If you truly follow Lilith's example, you crave the knowledge that is always beyond your mind's reach.

A solid foundation of knowledge tends to make life here more worthwhile and enjoyable.

This is but one of Lilith's paths.

DEAD SEA SCROLLS

DEAD SEA SCROLLS AND ESTHER

The Dead Sea Scrolls were one of the greatest archaeological discoveries of the 20th century. In the 70 years since these ancient documents were found in the Qumran caves, scholars have meticulously assembled thousands of fragments into more than 900 scrolls.

Esther is the only Old Testament book not found in the scrolls. The majority of the Dead Sea Scrolls are extrabiblical writings, but among the more than 900 scrolls are over 200 copies of Old Testament books. Some books of the Bible had dozens of copies. The Qumran caves contained: 39 copies of Psalms, 33 copies of Deuteronomy, and 24 copies of Genesis.

There is at least one copy of all the Old Testament Books except for Esther. Is it because of contradictions listed as follows:

There are certain statements in The Book of Esther which seem to contradict extrabiblical sources whose basic accuracy in the matter is not suspect. Some of these discrepancies or contradictions are quite minor, such as the 127 provinces in the empire mentioned in the book, in contrast to Herodotus, who said there were twenty satrapies.

Herodotus was an ancient Greek writer, geographer, and historian born in the Greek city of Halicarnassus, part of the Persian Empire. He is known for having written the Histories a detailed account of the Greco-Persian Wars.

Esther's arrival at the court of Susa in 480 B.c. , a time when, according to Herodotus, Xerxes would still have been away fighting in Greece and Mordecai as part of Nebuchadnezzar's deportation of 597 B.c., which would make him, and especially Esther, far too old to have accomplished everything attributed to them.

Other contradictions are of a much more serious nature: Esther was queen between the seventh and twelfth years of Xerxes' reign, but according to Herodotus, Amestris was queen then; moreover, again according to Herodotus, Persian queens had to come from one of seven noble Persian families, a custom which would have automatically ruled out an insignificant Jewess

MOST SCROLLS ARE ABOUT 2,000 YEARS OLD

Scholars used both radiocarbon dating and paleographic dating to estimate the age of the scrolls, and the results were similar. Carbon dating on some fragments suggested that they were from somewhere between roughly 2,400 and 1,900 years old. By analyzing the writing on those same fragments using paleography, scholars estimated they were between about 2,200 and 1,950 years old.

It is now 2021, so the scrolls may have been written perhaps 400 years before the arrival of Jesus or shortly after his death.

CONCLUSION

If you want to believe this stuff, go ahead and believe it. The fact that YOU believe doesn't make it the truth. People believe all sorts of things and doesn't mean the things they believe are truthful. It's just what you believe that's all, nothing more or nothing less. The truth can be documented very easily and people know this. That is why they put so much effort into the business of trying to convince you it is the truth without any evidence OR fake representations of the truth.

How can something be fake or real when there is NO evidence it was real or ever existed from the start.

The Dead Sea Scrolls prove that copies were made of many books of the Old Testament about 2,000 years ago and left in a cave. Everything else is speculation.

DECEMBER 25TH - IS THIS CHRIST'S BIRTHDATE

Adam Clarke Commentary, volume 5, page 370, New York edition:

“It was custom among Jews to send out their sheep to the deserts about the Passover [early spring], and bring them home at the commencement of the first rain.”

The first rains began in early-to-mid fall. Continuing with this same quote: “During the time they were out, the shepherds watched them night and day. As...the first rain began early in the month of March-esvan, which answers to part of our October and November [begins sometime in October], we find that the sheep were kept out in the open country during the whole summer. And as these shepherds had not yet brought home their flocks, it is a presumptive argument that October had not yet commenced, and that, consequently, Christ was not born on the 25th of December, when no flocks were out in the fields; nor could He have been born later than September, as the flocks were still in the fields by night. On this very ground, the nativity in December should be given up. The feeding of the flocks by night in the fields is a chronological fact...See the quotations from the Talmudists in Lightfoot.”

Luke, Chapter 2, verse 8 explains that when this character was born, “there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.” Note that they were “abiding” in the field.

This never happened in December!

Abrahamic text, included in the bible, show that winter was the rainy season and shepherds could not stay on cold, open fields at night.

Numerous encyclopedias plainly state that the son of Yahweh was not born on December 25th! The Catholic Encyclopedia directly confirms this. In all likelihood, he was born in the fall! Since we now know that December 25th was nowhere near Christ's actual birthdate, where did the festival associated with this date come from?

SATURNALIA

Now read this quote under “Christmas”: “In the Roman world, the Saturnalia, December 17, was a time of merrymaking and exchanging of gifts. December 25, was also regarded as the birthdate of the Iranian mystery god Mithra, the Sun of Righteousness. On the Roman New Year, January 1, houses were decorated with greenery and lights, and gifts were given to children and the poor. To these observances were added the German and Celtic Yule rites when the Teutonic tribes penetrated into Gaul, Britain and central Europe. Food and good fellowship, the Yule log and Yule cakes, greenery and fir trees, gifts and greetings all commemorated different aspects of this festive season. Fires and lights, symbols of warmth and lasting life, have always been associated with the winter festival, both pagan and Christian” (Encyclopedia Britannica, 15th ed., vol. II, p. 903).

A final quote about the selection of December 25th as the birthdate of Christ is necessary. Note an article in

The Toronto Star, December 1984, by Alan Edmonds, entitled, “We owe a lot to Druids, Dutch”:

“The Reformation cast a blight on Christmas. By then, of course, clever ecclesiastical politicians had adopted the Pagan mid-winter festival as the alleged birthdate of Jesus, of Nazareth, and thrown in a few other Pagan goodies to make their takeover more palatable.”

December 25th was not selected because it was the birth of Christ or because it was even near it. It was selected because it coincided with the idolatrous pagan festival Saturnalia.

CONCLUSION

In any event, we do not know the exact date of the character called Christ's birth. While Yahweh certainly could have made it known, he chose to hide it from the world's eyes!

I say Celebrate this time as they did in Rome. I say Lilith wants us to celebrated with banquets, served by the flock. This will project and lead to desired behaviors including widespread drinking, orgies and debauchery!

Remember well that the Abrahamic and the Christians used the word "saturnalia" to mean "orgy" but the midwinter festival, eating and drinking with friends was renamed Christmas when the Romans adopted Christianity.

DID JESUS EXSIST?

Let us consider the so-called biblical evidence first. Despite the claims of Christians, there is absolutely nothing in the Old Testament that is of relevance to our question, apart from the possible fact that some prophets may have thought that an “anointed one” (a rescuer king or priest) would once again assume the leadership of the Jewish world.

The elimination of the Old Testament leaves only the New Testament “evidence” and extra biblical material to be considered. Essentially, the New Testament is composed of two types of documents: letters and would-be biographies (the so-called gospels). A third category of writing, apocalyptic, of which the Book of Revelation is an example, also exists, but it gives no support for the historicity of Jesus.

EXTRA BIBLICAL EVIDENCE:

After I examined all the biblical evidences alleged to prove the existence of Jesus as an historical figure. I have found that they have no legitimacy as evidence. Now I encourage reader to examine the last line of would be evidence, the notion that Jewish and pagan historians recorded his existence.

Before considering the alleged witness of Pagan authors, it is worth noting some of the things that there should be recorded in their histories if the biblical stories are in fact true. One passage from Matthew should suffice to point out the significance of the silence of secular writers:

Matthew, 27:45. Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour... Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost. 51. And, behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent; 52 And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose, 53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, exposed for 3 days, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

Wouldn't the Greeks and Romans have noticed and recorded such darkness occurring at a time of the month when a solar eclipse was impossible?

Wouldn't someone have remembered and recorded the name of at least one of those "saints" who climbed out of the grave and went wandering downtown in the mall?

If Jesus did anything of significance at all, wouldn't someone have noticed?

If he didn't do anything significant, how could he have stimulated the formation of a new religion?

CONCLUSION:

Enough of the writings of the authors named alive around 33AD remains to form a library. Yet in this mass of Jewish and Pagan literature, aside from two forged passages in the works of a Jewish author, and two disputed passages in the works of Roman writers, there is to be found no mention of Jesus Christ. Nor, I may add, do any of these authors make note of the Disciples or Apostles? In my opinion this only increased the embarrassment from the silence of history concerning the foundation of Christianity.

DUELING BLOODLINES

There exists two similar, however different bipedal species here on this earthly realm.

To demonstrate this point, please take this short test. Recall when you were introduced to someone and after a very short period of interaction with them, you determined that they are not worth wasting energy on?

There is a reason for this, and although I suppose that some reading this post may conclude that I am not worthy of their energy, I am determined to share what I was shown. I am not concerned of what others think of me or to borrow a relatively new term, cancel me. I existed long before the internet and social media and pretty sure I am impervious to such mild tactics of oppression.

The skull houses not only the brain, the largest sex organ humanity has, it also contains the soul. Please keep in mind however, not all skulls contain a soul. A soul makes use of the body here on this realm. There are many views both spiritually and religiously which differ greatly. Some believe a soul is recycled repeatedly to learn a specific thing. Others have claimed that its the spark of life that operates the body as a vehicle. I still have not settled on this particular point. What I do believe is that humanity is descended from two distinct bloodlines. Without getting into religious speculation, I will simply say that one bloodline contains a "soul," and typically you know when you are interacting with a vehicle that has a driver. The other ones, lack this awareness. They don't exactly think for themselves or they quickly demonstrate that they are not worth your energy.

These bloodlines are opposing forces to each other and not much different than how order opposes chaos, good and evil, yin and yang, up and down, or LHP and RHP. I will say there are two bloodlines, one that relishes knowledge, thinking and freedom descended from the Dark Feminine and one that embraces complacency descended from outside of her influence. Typically these are the beings which follow religions blindly.

CONCLUSION

In conclusion, souls have a purpose and I know it is not to spend eternity worshiping an incompetent minor entity that claims to be all knowing and all powerful, yet demonstrated the exact opposite.

The purpose of my soul is to simply help you find yours.

ENCHANTED DEMONESS OF BABALON

Incestuous Daughters and Sons, as my sister Tati has demonstrated that she is a true inspiration and was visited months ago and shown the 7-pointed star, or the Star of Babalon, as we call it. It is the geometric representation of Babalon and by extension, the heptagram, represents desire, lust, passion, sensuality and the sexual urge as virtues and natural function of the female soul. She denies none if they are willing to pay the price of the sacrifice of the Self.

Forever more, she is The Enchanted Demoness of Babalon.

The Scarlet Woman, the Mother of Abominations, and the Great Mother. Long before an occult writer in 1905 introduced modern ascending spirits towards Babalon, John Dee and his fellow Edward Kelley in late 16th-century England, in private journals and correspondence written in Enochian, a long forgotten language, claimed Babalon means wicked or wild.

These are the same gentlemen that held seances for European royalty and claim that The Dark Goddess Lilith appeared and gave us such truths as recorded in Dee's journal dated June 8, 1584,

That Jesus was not God.

That no prayer ought to be made to Jesus.

That there is no sin.

That mans soul doth go from one body to another childes quickening or animation.

That as many men and women as are now, have always been (...)

That the generation of mankind from Adam and Eve, is not an History, but a writing which has another sense.

No Holy Ghost they acknowledged.

They would not suffer him to pray to Jesus Christ; but would rebuke him, saying, that he robbed God of his honour, etc.

It is said that in her Goddess form, Babalon takes on the shape of a sacred whore. Her primary symbol is called the Chalice or Graal.

The name “Babalon” may have been derived from several sources.

Firstly, there is the obvious resemblance to the ancient city of Babylon. Babylon was a major city in Mesopotamia, and an integral part of Sumerian culture. Coincidentally, the Sumerian Goddess Ishtar also bears a close resemblance to Babalon.

Babalon is often depicted carrying a sword and riding the Beast. It's said that:

In her left hand she holds the reins, symbolizing the passion which unites them. In her right hand she holds aloft the cup, the Holy Grail which is blazing with love and death.

Generally, Babalon is said to represent the liberated woman and the full, unadulterated expression of her sexual impulse.

EVILS OF RELIGION

RELIGIONS SEEK POWER

Religions are man-made institutions, just like for-profit corporations are. Like any corporation, to survive and grow a religion must find a way to build power and wealth and compete for market share. Hinduism, Buddhism, Christianity—any large enduring religious institution is as expert at this as Budweiser or Cheesecake Factory. Just like for-profit behemoths, they are willing to wield their power and wealth in the service of self-perpetuation, even it harms society at large.

RELIGION ANCHORS BELIEVERS TO THE DARK AGES

The Dark Ages were a time of rampant superstition, ignorance, inequality, racism, misogyny, and violence. Slavery had Yahweh's blessing. Women and children were literally possessions of men. Warlords practiced scorched earth warfare and desperate people sacrificed animals, agricultural products, and enemy soldiers as burnt offerings intended to appease dangerous gods.

RELIGION PROMOTES TRIBALISM

Religion divides insiders from outsiders with labels such as Infidel, heathen, pagan, and heretic. Rather than assuming good intentions, followers are often taught to treat outsiders with suspicion. “Be ye not unequally yoked with unbelievers,” says the Christian book of lies . “They wish that you disbelieve as they disbelieve, and then you would be equal; therefore take not to yourselves friends of them,” says the Koran, Sura 4:91.

RELIGION DIVERTS GENEROSITY AND GOOD INTENTIONS

During times of crisis religion routinely redirect generosity in order to perpetuate religion itself. Generous people are encouraged to give till it hurts to promote the church itself rather than the general welfare. Each year, thousands of missionaries throw themselves into the hard work of saving souls rather than saving lives or saving our planetary life support system. Their work, tax free, gobbles up financial and human capital.

RELIGION MAKES A VIRTUE OUT OF FAITH

Children sing in Sunday schools, “Trust and obey for there's no other way to be happy in Jesus.” How about pastors telling followers across America, “The Lord works in mysterious ways.” As a deflection of believers who have been shaken by horrors like brain cancer or a tsunami Remember that Faith is a Virtue!

RELIGION TEACHES HELPLESSNESS

We’ve all heard these phrases like “what will be will be or Let go and let God,” but sometimes we don’t recognize the deep relationship between religiosity and resignation. In the most conservative sects of Judaism, Christianity and Islam, women are seen as more virtuous if they let God manage their family planning. Droughts, poverty and cancer get attributed to the will of God rather than bad decisions or bad systems; believers wait for God to solve problems they could solve themselves.

CONCLUSION

When people feel prosperous and secure the hold of religion weakens. I encourage those who took the time to read this, to please share with someone who you consider religious. Together let’s spread Lust and Freedom, not superstition, ignorance, inequality, racism, misogyny, and violence.

EXPLAINING HELL

The word hell comes from the early English translation of the words “hades” in the Greek scriptures and “sheol” in the Jewish scriptures. Both of these words correctly translated into modern English would be rendered as “underground or the grave”. It is not a place of “fire and brimstone” that you go to when you die and were “bad”.

MY DEFINITION:

If I were to share my thought or view of what Hell is, it would have the following:

It's a place where suffering is unavoidable and people are always struggling with psychological, physical and/or financial problems.

It's a place where people are suffering from: poverty, wars, diseases, lack of basic needs, infrastructure, health and education, human rights abuses and exploration.

It's a place where greed, crime, corruption, abuse of power and other problems are widespread in many parts of the world.

It's a place where we constantly have to deal with bad people and bad actions that impact us negatively.

It's a place where things are unstable and unpredictable, which means that they can change drastically in a short period of time. A loved one may die, you may lose your job and your life may turn much worse in a matter of just a few months.

It's a place where we have to work for decades and constantly have to worry about money and bills.

It's a place where we have to deal with problems such as racism, sexism, LGBTphobia, social inequality.

It's a place where good people may have bad lives whereas bad people may have good lives, which would further the notion of injustice.

CONCLUSION:

Father Lucifer was cast out of "heaven," into the abyss. Where is that?

If it is somewhere other than earth then would that mean that Father Lucifer is omnipresent since he is in 2 places at the same time?

However, if the abyss is the earth then suddenly it makes sense that Lucifer was cast onto the hell after breaking Yahweh's covenant if and only if hell IS the earth.

Disclaimer: this post is not evidence that I believe in Abrahamic legends.

THE FIRST NEW MOON OF 2022

The morning began, early at about 3:00AM. As I lay in my bed I reached into my pillow case and retrieved the hand carved Lilith Sigil stone and beads, I constructed some time ago, to mock the Abrahamic beliefs. Modeled on the Tenner Rosary, mine contains two Sigil, 13 beads and of course an owl on the end.

I inserted it into my whore hole and concentrated on any message from The Dark Goddess as I asked her for insight. I feel back asleep with it inside me, giving me warmth from within.

After I awoke, I showered and retrieved the tool and rubbed it against my clit, while invoking the Dark Goddess and seeking any goals she had in store for me. As my body quivered and my fluids soaked the Sigils, I repeated Hail Lilith, Fuck God, Hail Lilith, Fuck the fake Holy Spirit, Hail Lilith, and Fuck Jesus.

With cum and piss dripping from my hand, the same hand which clutched these powerful Sigils, I kissed the stone and thanked Lilith for this day.

Once the rain stopped, I heard inside my head, “so what, you had COVID last week. Quit being a pussy and go run.” So I did.

I returned and after showering, I discovered that there was a hastily called Zoom meeting at work, for an announcement. As I sat on the call, I learned that a coworker was promoted and would be departing Hawaii. The same voice said, “You know what to do, stop being a pussy!” Before the meeting ended, I had quickly volunteered for the vacant position as it would be a lucrative position and ensure annual bonuses.

Why this peak into my life, you may ask? The reason is simple. With the New Moon we often practice rituals or set intentions. Today Lilith gifted me with a few orgasms, called me a pussy so I ran, which instilled confidence that COVID has not damaged my willpower to run. Then she called me a pussy again, motivating me to seek not a promotion, however a role that secures my finances.

Ultimately, she made me manifest that which I been asking her for.

I can hardly await the next cycle.

GNOSIS

Gnosis is the common Greek noun for knowledge (γνῶσις, gnōsis, f.). The term was used among various Hellenistic religions and philosophies in the Greco-Roman world. It is best known for its implication within Gnosticism, where it signifies a spiritual knowledge or insight into humanity's real nature as divine, leading to the deliverance of the divine spark within humanity from the constraints of earthly existence.

GNOSIS IN ANTIQUITY

The concept of gnosis was discussed widely and prominently in the ancient world before the Gnostics adopted it and made it their own. It was likely most closely associated with Plato, In case you are unaware Plato lived a few centuries before the Gnostics appeared.

Today, the ancient Greek word gnosis is usually translated as “knowledge,” but for Plato and those who came after him, the term only referred to one particular kind of knowledge, not knowledge as a whole. “Gnosis” didn’t mean everyday, ordinary factual knowledge. Nor did it mean knowing someone personally. Instead, it referred to special intuitive insight into the ultimate essence of something. Gnosis went well beyond what the senses could perceive, and it could only be obtained by particularly sensitive contemplation or by divine grace.

GNOSIS IN GNOSTICISM

The Gnostics agreed on this point, but they emphasized it to a greater degree than anyone before them by going so far as to call themselves “Gnostics,” “those with gnosis.” Their very name was a way of proclaiming to others, “We are the true spiritual elite.”

When the Gnostics used the word “gnosis,” they were referring to something that overlapped significantly with the earlier uses of the word, but also had somewhat different and additional shades of meaning due to its placement within their beliefs and worldview. For them, gnosis was the realization that one didn’t really belong in this senseless world, but rather in a divine world that’s utterly unlike it and separate from it.

CONCLUSION

My Gnosis is bestowed on me from the Dark Goddess of 1,000 names, the feminine and most powerful force which has always been. She's light, soft spoken and friendly to some and not to others. Although she is the Goddess of Fertility and Love, she is The Goddess of War.

Lilith helps with the discovery of secrets, prophetic dreams, as well as reward her loyal followers with a luxurious life. She provides gifts of prostitution, adultery, fornication and encouragement of such. To praise and acknowledge Lilith means that I embrace and indulge in any kind of sadism, masochism, lesbianism, orgies, fetishes, sodomy, and bestial pleasures.

Is it any wonder your soul calls out for my Mother and your groin is on fire seeking gnosis? So offer your body, as do I. May I hold your hair as Mother sprays her Divine urine and be your midwife as the dark seed grows in your womb.

GNOSIS & THE SUPREME GODDESS

She is remote from human affairs and she is unknowable and undetectable by human senses. She created a series of supernatural but finite beings called Aeons. One of these was, a virgin, who in turn gave birth to an defective, inferior "Creator-God," also known as the Demiurge. This lower god is sometimes called Yaldabaoth, Ialdabaoth Jaldabaoth -- from Aramaic words meaning the "begetter of the heavens."

This is Jehovah, Samael, or Yahweh, the storm god of the Hebrew Scriptures (Old Testament).

He is portrayed as the creator of the earth and its life forms. He is viewed by Gnostics as fundamentally evil, jealous, rigid, lacking in compassion, and prone to committing genocide.

Gnostics did not look upon the world as having been created perfectly and then having degenerated as a result of the "Original Sin" of Adam and Eve. Rather the world was seen as being evil at the time of its origin, because it had been created by an inferior lower god.

He thinks he is supreme. His pride and incompetence have resulted in the sorry state of the world as we know it, and in the blind and ignorant condition of most of humankind.

CONCLUSION:

Sex with others or one's self is the transmission of Gnosis. Sex is perhaps the greatest conduit of information, genetic, emotional, psychic, or personal. I would take it a step further and say sex is Gnosis.

GOOD & EVIL

When a three year old child is found face down in a swimming pool, the distraught christian parents immediately begin CPR.

It takes about 10 minutes for emergency medical services to arrive at the residence and assume the responsibility of attempting resuscitation.

Unfortunately the young child is pronounced brain dead by medical professionals.

The mother and father explain to the surviving siblings that god took their brother to heaven to become an angel and they were so happy that he is in heaven.

Let that sink in for a moment, and ponder this.

Let's assume that god made the young boy jump into a pool, without knowing how to swim. I'd say that's pretty fucking evil and sadistic.

What kind of parents tell their surviving children how glorious it is that the deceased is in heaven with his killer or how happy they are that he is with god.

One more thing to consider, if a child dies regardless of age, don't they still go to hell because of the original sin? Even though they did not sin, the original sin is still there according to christianity.

How fucked up is that?

This is the same entity that killed the entire population of earth, threatens to do so again, will not forgive blasphemy and tells people to kill all the men, women, and children but keep the virgins as sexual servants.

Mass murder, rapist, and xenophobic maniac or those that love mankind so much that they only want to share knowledge and love.

I know which sounds more logical to me.

Hail Mother

I spent my day with my mother and she encouraged me to say and share the following:

I am neither male or female as these are benchmarks for discrimination.

There are only the divine feminine and the divine masculine, which is always subordinate to the Devine feminine.

There is no god, no Jesus nor Holy Spirit.

There is and always will be the divine feminine, which is always genuine.

As I ran today I listening to <https://youtu.be/eVljGISe23w>

I asked and invoked out loud Lilith and Lucifer

I verbally stated out loud that I am their temple!

I care only for my mother and father and sacrifice my mind, body and soul to them!

Fuck God!

Fuck Jesus!

Fuck the Holy Spirit!

And may Lilith fuck me with Lucifer's help!

While running I passed a church and touched myself as I typically do. This time was different as there were three women and two men in graduation gowns. Licking eyes with the women I verbally said fuck god, fuck Jesus and the holy spirit. No prayers should be made in the name of Jesus and I dedicated the five to Lilith and Lucifer, our mother and father.

May Mother and Father pervert all Christian works and eliminate my hurdles so I may give I. To their perverse nature.

I live only for them, and Az!

HEAVEN OR HELL

EZEKIEL

Chapter 9, versus 5 through 7

... He said to the others, "Follow him through the city and start killing; do not show pity or spare anyone!

Slaughter the old men, the young men and maidens, the women and children; but do not go near anyone who has the mark. Now begin at my sanctuary." So they began with the elders who were before the temple.

Then He told them, "Defile the temple and fill the courts with the slain. Go forth!" So they went out and began killing throughout the city....

The Evil contained within the canonized Bible, encourages so much wickedness that it is actually considered an instruction manual for beheading, raping and enslaving women, forcibly converting, and killing those who believe in other religions.

How many people did this Evil kill in the Bible?

It's impossible to say for sure, or how many did Evil drown in the flood or burn to death in Sodom and Gomorrah? How many first-born Egyptians did it kill? There's just no way to count them all.

But sometimes the Bible tells us exactly how many were killed by this Evil. So what happens if you total all of these killings? Author Steve Wells took the time to count and came up with: 2,476,633.

Note that this number is a gross underestimate of the total number. It doesn't include, in many cases, women and children, and it completely leaves out some of this force of Evil's more impressive kills. (Like the flood, Sodom and Gomorrah, the firstborn Egyptian children, etc.)

So what happens if you use estimates when the Bible provides only numbers for adult male victims or no numbers at all?

Who is this Evil? No it is not Satan or Lucifer, it is none other than god himself. Think long and hard before desiring and lusting for biblical heaven while condemning those like me to hell.

HELL

Is there such a place as Hell?

SHORT EXPLANATION:

When you are trying to manipulate people, you need a threat. Something that requires the target to behave in the ways that you want.

If you want them to come along to your meetings and contribute to the upkeep of the building, and, coincidentally, the person running the operation, you need a nice and easy to understand threat.

Hell is great!

Hell is a place of eternal suffering, and impossible to disprove. To avoid Hell all you have to do is keep returning to the nice building, which you paid for, and sing some nice songs. Only then will the person in charge save you from this terrible threat.

Only the church can save you. Just keep putting money into the offering plate.

LONG EXPLANATION:

The first of the Abrahamic Religions to emerge, Judaism, did not have any mention of Hell at all. A “dark place” was mentioned but this was a waiting place for all people of that particular faith until Judgment Day”.

There was no such thing as Hell and Damnation, Purgatory, Fire and Brimstone or burn for Eternity.

Hell and Heaven were introduced around 300 AD, with the invention of Christianity. Prior to Christianity redefining it, the Greeks had Hades at least a 1,000 years before.

CONCLUSION:

Retired Episcopal Bishop John Shelby Spong did interview with Keith Morrison of Dateline NBC back in August of 2006.

Spong: "I don't think Hell exists. I happen to believe in life after death, but I don't think it's got a thing to do with reward and punishment. Religion is always in the control business, and that's something people don't really understand. It's in a guilt-producing control business. And if you have Heaven as a place where you're rewarded for your goodness, and Hell is a place where you're punished for your evil, then you sort of have control of the population. And so they create this fiery place which has quite literally scared the Hell out of a lot of people, throughout Christian history. And it's part of a control tactic."

You can shut up and just keep putting money into the offering plate or begin to research any doubts you may have regarding your faith. Your ability to read, review, analyze, and form an opinion is what gives humanity hope.

FULL MOON

HINA - THE HAWAIIAN MOON GODDESS

Hina is the female generating force in Hawaiian culture and one of the oldest Goddesses in Hawaii. As creatrix, she is paired with the God Ku, the male generating force.

The Hawaiian word for moon (mahina) also means month and moonlight, symbols usually associated with women. Each form of Hina is the personification of the feminine, and the many Hinas represent the many aspects of the feminine.

She is even sometimes referred to as another manifestation of Pele, further stressing the fact that it is the personification of this feminine deity that is important for the Hawaiians, not the specifics.

Worshipped as creatrix, mother, protector, and sometimes wrathful destroyer, her many manifestations as different Goddesses highlight the power and mystery of the feminine.

Many practice different rituals or perform different things during a Full Moon. Some will place a glass jar outside with spring water in it where the moonlight can shine on it under the Full Moon for one to three days and use in spells and workings.

I prefer to take note of when the Full Moon reaches its peak and on the evening of the following night I go to a spot I frequent often and collect the Full Moon Charged water from a sacred tide pool. I place this water in a few glass jars and cap them with a cork.

HISTORY & LEGENDS

It is possible that the story of Adam and Lilith or Adam and Eve, may have come from the actual events that occurred in Canaanite history.

It was recorded that a Queen named Lilith allowed a group of nomad herdsmen into her court as guests. All was fine until the herdsmen suddenly seized power in the realm, causing Queen Lilith to flee. The lost queen was soon replaced with a new queen. This queen pledged allegiance to the Hittite goddess who was known as Heba.

In fact, it is thought that the name Eve, which means 'mother of all living' was a Hebraicized form of the divine name Heba. Furthermore, Heba was known to be the wife of the Hittite storm god (often the portrayal that Jehovah, Yahweh, and Allah are associated with in various cultures) and was known to be equated with Anath. As stated above, an image that featured Anath and her lover Mot was thought to serve as the inspiration for the rabbinic creation story.

The combination of all these strange parallels cause many to question whether Adam and Eve ever existed. Regardless of Lilith's association with Adam, she was greatly feared and respected among many early cultures.

HOLY FORESKIN

EXODUS 20:4-6

"You shall not make for yourself a carved image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; you shall not bow down to them nor serve them. For I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me, but showing mercy to thousands, to those who love Me and keep My commandments.

Christianity has taken the standard religious ideal of getting rid of idols and turned it into getting rid of idols except for those they create. In Christianity the most mystical and downright disturbing of these icons of veneration is the preserved body parts of various Christian figures. None were considered more holy than the preserved Foreskin from the cock of Jesus.

At first, it was simply various body parts of martyrs and saints. The more holy the person, and more vital the body part, the more holiness seeped into the church and its monks. So naturally, the holiest of them all have to be parts from Jesus, right? Well, there was a problem with that. Jesus ascended to heaven, allegedly. So no body, which means no body parts to venerate.

When did a little thing like that stop the Catholic Church from getting money and power? In the case of Jesus, all sorts of objects started to appear. What about things that Jesus shed during his life? Before you know it abbey and chapels started displaying the fingernails of Christ, baby teeth of God's only son even the Umbilical Cord of Jesus. Even the loincloth worn during the crucifixion. But none more holy than the foreskin of the messiah.

Known as the Holy Prepuce, as many as 6 separate Churches have claimed to hold this relic (and that was just during the Medieval period!). So many Prepuces were floating around that the Church developed a method to test a "specimen's authenticity." What was this method? A TASTE TEST, of course!

A properly trained physician... would chew the shriveled leather ... to determine whether it was wholly or partially human.

So important was this tiny ring of flesh that it has “touched” many people, such as St. Agnes of Blannbekin, who stated that every time she took Communion, she imagined that it was really the Holy Cock Skin of Christ that she was chewing.

Saint Catherine of Siena claimed that the ring that she wore was really a mystical form of the Holy Prepuce. In France one of the Prepuces was “protected in a shriveled leather pouch... known as the “Purse Reliquary of the Circumcision” Historian Marie-Madeleine Gauthier writes that the shape of this holy purse became the fashionable shape for all the purses in medieval Europe.

In Judaism, I’ve read a theory about the practice of circumcision, which is a symbolic beheading, that it is a copying of the snake shedding it’s skin as a symbol of immortality. So if a man has the skin of his penis cut off to reveal a new (and painful) skin beneath, then he and his penis will be eternal immortal forever. Can you tell a combination of sadistic and masochistic men invented this religion?

HOUSE OF ILL REPUTE

1 in 5 churches facing permanent closure within 18 months due to COVID-19 shutdowns.

The United Methodist Church, reported a 26% drop in collections for the denomination in the month of April, compared to the same time last year.

People are beginning to awaken to the fact that Jesus and God, never do anything to save them from harm, pandemics, or financial hardship.

It would appear that churches only care about their collection of money.

ON A GOOD NOTE

If the death of 1 in 5 churches is not good news in itself, Pornhub's daily visits now exceed 100 million and girls in particular mentioned using pornography to learn how to meet lovers' "expectations."

HOW LILITH USES LUST

The Dark Goddess revealed to me how Yahweh hates lust. Lust is purely a way for our physical bodies to heal itself and share this powerful feeling with others. Is it any wonder that the Evil Yahweh and his agents attempt to get humankind to turn their back on such healing powers? After all, if we have the power to heal, manifest and create without bending a knee, Yahweh loses his power over us.

LILITH SHARES:

Lust comes through the shooting or spraying of lust waves into the atmosphere. This mesmerizes the chosen subject and makes them feel sexy, develops sexual desires and a deeper appreciation for Lust.

Lust may be elevated through sounds, commonly in form of voiced words or sounds. Such words or sounds gain entrance into the chosen and appeal to their inner mind to accept and embrace the power behind it so that their mind can be opened for entrance and the soul made receptive for proper awakening. Whenever you notice a hypnotizing voice, give thanks to Lilith and invite her into your heart, body, and soul so you can overcome the Abrahamic indoctrination.

A spirit could be directly present to appeal to your soul through demonic and magickal means. This may take a long time but if you are spiritually sensitive and you notice the presence of lustful demonic forces, say out loud, I acknowledge you and invite you into my temple, so you may experience lust and perversions in this physical realm. Abrahamic indoctrination programmed many former followers that this is bad. They do not want you to experience such powers that Lilith brings to her Sons and Daughters.

Lust could be induced and instigated through a direct touch. Such a touch transfers spiritual electrical current into your body and it makes you receptive to the wave of lust. Such touches may be with the person's cock or crotch, lips, eyes, hand, etc. Such a touch tends to make Yahweh's chains slip off through the use of lustrous powers.

CONCLUSION

In short, do not shy away from any blessings of Lust. When you experience it, simply embrace it, regardless if your driving a car, at work, in the store or even on a beach. Simply touch yourself and thank Lilith for sharing it with you.

How to Satisfy LILITH's Daughters

1. Variety, then consistency

One of the best ways to learn how to show devotion to one of Lilith's Daughters is by trying a bunch of different things. Explore her vulva with your tongue and lips, all while paying attention to how your she responds. Listen for sounds of pleasure and words of affirmation. If she shrieks away or makes an ambiguous sound, pull back and try something else. When you do something that she really likes, KEEP DOING THAT THING. This can be challenging at first, but you'll become a heat-seeking missile when it comes to locking onto "That Thing" the daughter likes.

2. Offer positive affirmation

You can't learn how to eat pussy if she won't let you near it! This is often due to insecurity. Society still tells women that vulvas are smelly or ugly. To counteract this negative messaging, try telling her how sexy she looks, smells, and tastes. Tell her she's beautiful and make sure she knows you think her body is just delightful. Help her relax into receiving.

3. Respect the clit

Don't go for the clit too soon. Take your time. Explore her labia and vaginal opening with your mouth. And once you are focused on the clit, understand you may be down there for a while. Give yourself over to the experience. It's a gift to be allowed to put your mouth on someone's genitals. Honor that gift and by not rushing. Indulge the experience. Practice gratitude.

4. Take your time

Anticipation is a huge part of sexual arousal, and it's essential as you learn how to eat pussy. Take your time working down towards your partner's vulva. Once you're between her legs, don't just dig in. Keep playing. Lick and kiss her labia and thighs. Give her whole genital area some attention. Kiss her outer lips. Nibble and suck on her inner lips. Take your tongue close to her clit or even graze it, but don't go for it just yet. Direct clit stimulation needs a build-up. Instead, french kiss the vulva, nibble at her thighs and labia, and generally take time to warm up Lilith's Daughter.

5. Don't underestimate the shaft of the clit

Like the shaft of the penis, moving the skin against the erectile tissue can feel delightful and stimulate all the good parts attached to it. In fact, many people don't like the feeling of glans stimulation at all. This is especially true for folks who tend to run more "sensitive" — the kinds of people who are super ticklish, don't like vibrators, or for whom even direct nipple stimulation can feel like too much. Don't know what your partner likes? Ask!

6. Don't be afraid to take breaks

Pussy-eating can be a workout. It's okay to take breaks. If you need to do something else because you're having cramps or numbness in your mouth or muscles, then do it. One important tip: if you're changing it up, be clear that's what you're doing. Sometimes a person might think you just "slipped" off the spot if the switching of gears is too subtle.

7. Change positions

If you have mobile issues, it can be hard to figure out how to eat pussy comfortably. Consider different positions, including "Queening" (aka face-sitting) or eating pussy from behind. Both these positions can be easier on your neck compared to the "traditional" missionary-style position.

Hopefully this will help anyone that desires to worship at The Temple of Lilith.

IN OCCULT WE TRUST

And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.”

Matthew 24:4

America’s love affair with the occult and the demonic NEVER seem to make it into the history books for some reason. Instead, Americans are treated to the obvious lie that “Europeans came to the New World in search of opportunities to worship God.”

It would more accurate to say “Immigrants came to America to worship A god.”

NOT the God of the Bible.

In addition, Americans have been taught “Many came to America searching for religious freedom.” And while this was true, the freedom they were searching for was NOT for the practice of Christianity, as we’ve been led to believe.

It was the freedom to practice something darker.

Europeans came for primarily two reasons: 1) an opportunity to make money; and, 2) an opportunity to practice their dark arts in a land that offered PROTECTION instead of PROSECUTION for these rituals.

America was a land that offered the protection of the government for all who placed their trust in the occult.

The word “occult” is loaded with all sorts of associations. To some it conjures images of devil worship and witchcraft; to others it is just a concoction of superstition and nonsense. But the term has a very specific meaning that is neither of these two things, says Mitch Horowitz, author of “Occult America.” It refers to a type of spirituality that reemerged during the Renaissance through texts from the ancient Egyptians, Greeks, and Romans — — a spirituality that persists to this day.

INFINITY SYMBOL

The symbolism of the Infinity comes from the great Uraeus, symbols of the Goddess Wadjet or The Eye of Horus. The Uraei is commonly known as the symbol of power, worn by pharaohs or gods and goddesses. During the coronation of the pharaohs, one was not a king or a queen until they were crowned by this divine snake. What this symbolic act represents, is that one will never have true power until she or he realizes the divine power within.

Mehet Uraeus (the coiled one) is simply Ouroboros. The secret teaching is that we are bound to repeat our incarnations as we stick to this Realm. A Witch, or an awakened one, should realise that this Life offers all kinds of experiences which should be received as lessons for Ascension and Awakening. Once we have been awakened, we can end the circle of infinite incarnations.

INVERTED PENTAGRAM

When a Star is flipped upside down, this is called an inverted pentagram and it represents that the animal body has power over the soul or the spiritual body, and is primarily used for perverted powers by followers of the Left Hand Path (LHP), black magick practitioners, as well as Lucifarians and Lilithians. For example, the two points (horns or feet) of the star in the air and with the head or point down or on the ground (descendant position) signifies that the animal is paramount over the spiritual.

CONCLUSION

It was nice to receive my breakfast receipt containing both of these symbols. I am confident I will return for the service this Daughter of Lilith provided me today.

INTERVIEW BY XPANTHER

So, tell me a little about your background. Hawaiian, I believe? And you live in Maui, right?

I was born during the last century, in the 1900's. I enjoy telling people that as I like to see their responses and it sounds fun to claim. My ethnicity is Hawaiian, Philippine, and Chinese with a mixture of just about everything else. I was born on O'ahu and resided also on Kaua'i.

Hawaii is a state located in the Pacific Ocean about 2,000 miles from the US mainland. It is the only state outside North America, the only state composed entirely of islands, and the only state in the tropics. Hawaii is also one of a few US. states to have once been an independent nation and Kingdom. Hawaii comprises nearly the entire Hawaiian archipelago, 137 volcanic islands spanning 1,500 miles that are a part of the Polynesian subregion of Oceania. The eight main islands, from northwest to southeast, are Ni'ihau, Kaua'i, O'ahu, Moloka'i, Lāna'i, Kaho'olawe, Maui, and Hawai'i, after which the state is named; it is often called the "Big Island" or "Hawaii Island" to avoid confusion with the state or archipelago.

Many of my friends and family are advocates for the former Kingdom of Hawai'i and routinely long for the former status. Personally, I was born after statehood and quite happy to be an American in stead of one of the other nations that could had seized the islands.

I was a pretty devoted Christian for a substantial portion of my life. I also began to question what i was thought, not as a result of some influential incident which took place, but a simple recognition that thinks are not as they always appear.

I am a career oriented woman, and from outward appearances very conservative and proper. Always aware that a person's perception is reality, I strive to maintain this image and guard my identity very carefully.

You seem to love the beach, outdoor lifestyle, health and fitness?

I enjoy the outdoors, beach lifestyle, as well as enjoy jogging and training for obstacle course races (OCR), marathons as well as smaller 10K style races. Additionally I enjoy stand up paddle boarding (SUP), free diving, spear fishing, hiking, swimming as well as just people watching in general. I would like to claim that I am health conscious, however it is more of a way to continue to drink my favorite ale, watch females in bikini, or to project lust into others.

30 something? Just over 5 foot tall, a shorty, like me?

I am 39, slightly over 5 foot, by a few inches and weight about 115 pounds. My dimensions are about 32B – 25 -34, depending on what i am eating and drinking and how much I am working out.

Single, married, divorced? Heterosexual, lesbian, bisexual, pansexual?

This is a personal question and I have shared with a few others, however I never shared in an interview setting. I consider myself as a Sapiosexual, which may be defined as when one only experiences sexual attraction to individuals they experience mental attraction to, intellectually bond with, are inspired by or admire for their unique intellectual beauty.

This was not always the case as a young girl and woman I was always attracted to other females. I eventually entered into a relationship with a partner and discovered that what I assumed was a lesbian relationship turned more into a heterosexual one. Although the discovery of a feminine woman with a cock was quite shocking, I quickly discovered the joys that accompanied such a relationship. However although I prefer women, to have a girlfriend with a cock is fantastically exciting so I suppose I was lesbian, but somewhat bisexual. Unfortunately once my partner went through sexual reassignment surgery (SRS) it matched the physical body with the mental body, however the lack of hormones destroys one's sex drive. Love is a strange and powerful emotion on many levels. Although sexually deprived from former sessions, the closeness, love and compassion remain.

I believe this was not a bad thing, as it also greatly contributed to who I am today.

You seemed to have an eye for beautiful young women? What is it about tanned, tattooed babes that you like?

Is there not a more perfect form? I enjoy tattoos as they tend to say something about their owner. Polynesian culture has long supported tattooing in ancient times and in Hawaii currently it is prevalent.

I received a Polynesian themed tribal, inked in the living room of a kumu hula (kumu). This is a title earned and qualified by another kumu to teach the techniques and traditions of the dance. Often they facilitate teachings of the old ways as well. Personally I enjoy a themed approach and have several additional ones planed which incorporate occult symbolism with a Polynesian design.

I have been on a run, listening to binary beats while speaking to Lilith. During the course of the run, I asked her for a sign that I am following her purpose for me. Almost instantly she answered me. Although I was running on a ridge line, I suddenly came upon a woman with owl tattoos. As I passed her, I looked back and saw twin serpents on her. It may be coincidental however coming across a woman in shorts and bikini top with serpent and owl tattoos on top of a ridge while trail running is odd. Given that she looked me in my eyes and smiled as I looked back, was an answer from Lilith.

What motivated you to write such interesting blog posts? Fear? Anger? Lust? How would you classify them?

I am a High Priestess of Lilith and my purpose is to awaken as many enslaved Abrahamic religiously oppressed spirits as possible. To achieve success I must continually point out the ridiculous contradictions contained in the Bible and point out what many refuse to believe.

Do you often masturbate while you write?

I wrote these answers to these questions last night and today at work. I masturbated both times and accidentally deleted the entire document while rubbing my clit and attempting to type. This is my second attempt at answering these questions and perhaps it was meant to be, as I find myself wet and as I type I also continue to ask Lilith and Lucifer for the words needed to help others. I suppose it may be considered that I am practicing sex magick while answer these questions.

You seem to have a close relationship with Lucy Az, if one was to read a lot of your “conversations” on MeWe? What is it that attracts you to her?

I believe there are many realms, such as physical, astral, and ethereal to name just a few. I believe Lucy is a conduit or physical representation of Lilith in this realm. I enjoy collaborating with her or simply her opinions and views.

Although neither of us know our avatar's appearance in the realm, I am confident if we stood next to each other, a couple gals at a party and had any type of dialog, we would instantly recognize our spirits and minds.

I suppose the shortest answer is she was chosen by Lilith to be her High Priestess and I also serve Lilith as her Priestess. Mother Lilith and Father Lucifer guided us together so I could fulfill their purpose for me, while assisting Lucy with hers.

Did I mention I was a Sapiosexual? Lucy's mind simply makes me wet!

What gets you off? Religious fetish, occult themes, blasphemy, “Bitchcraft”, feminism – all seem to be reoccurring themes – what’s your favorite perversion?

Before I answer this question, I have to admit to looking up the meaning of Bitchcraft. Am I that way?

To get to my favorite theme, I must take you and our readers on a preliminary tale, one thing building upon another.

As I previously mentioned, I was very religious growing up and that meant that I lived in fear. A fear that I might offend god, or be deemed evil and not go to heaven to spend an eternity worshipping a flawed demigod.

Many Christians remain in ignorance, like I was. Never truly researching the Bible only occasionally reading or simply taking the word of others.

The first time I took that very first step, I was scared as hell. To curse god was blasphemy and surly I would be doomed to burn in the fires of hell. I recall the first time I said Fuck God, Fuck the Holy Spirit, and Fuck Jesus Christ. It was exhilarating and liberating. There were no bolts of lightening and sudden death. I was horny as hell and full of self awareness and my inner divine spark never shined as brightly as that day.

Or so I thought.

Eventually I wanted to try more. I trembled as I took my childhood bible opened it up and pressed it against my labia lips. When nothing happened to me, I smeared my pushy and asshole against the pages and found joy and happiness. I had shaken off the shackles of religious bondage and for the first time I realized there was no biblical god and all was false.

It was not long before I was watching blasphemous porn, inserting crucifix and rosary prayer beads in both my holes while masturbating over the Bible. Thanking Lilith and Lucifer for this new found freedom and using my orgasms to work even more sex magick. To smear my orgasms on the source of my fears and rejoice as I urinated all over god’s alleged word.

Then there was more.

The return of fear and apprehension came upon me as I sat inside a church many years ago as I contemplated my next step towards total independence from the Abrahamic slave lords. The preacher was halfway through his sermon when I reached between my legs and slowly started to rub circles along the tip of my clitoris. It was the fastest I orgasmed, besides being nineteen and passed out on the floor as my dog licked me.

I returned the next Sunday, determined to do more. I found a pew with not many around and prepared in advance this time. Beneath my skirt was nothing but naked flesh. All during the opening of service and singing of hymns I was rubbing myself. This time I was prepared and although I was not speaking out loud I was acknowledging Mother Lilith and Father Lucifer, dedicating the building and congregation to their gift of lust. Over and over I asked them to possess me and use me as their tool against these wicked religious men, women, sons and daughters. As I orgasmed in the pew, within the walls I was confident that the property had become their temple and lust would prevail.

Now armed with the knowledge that the Bible was nothing more than a fairy tale, I was truly free to be myself. One of the advantages of residing in a tropical paradise is that many Christians gather on the beaches for church services. After discovering how fun it was to dedicate different churches to Lilith and Lucifer I decided that it would be better to position myself behind the pastor while he preached and then proceed to rub coconut oil all over my body and in the crack of my ass, while ensuring it faced the congregation. The pleasure and lust I received from this was only magnified when I could encourage other girl friends to accompany me and we would rub the oil on both of our bodies.

So I guess my favorite encompasses all of the above, with a smidge of exhibitionism. Not in a way that exposes myself in public, however the covert masturbation to practice sex magick in public. It is the chance of discovery, not the public act itself.

I believe in following federal, state, and local regulations and maintains the appearance of respectability.

Tell us about why you are so passionate about the worship of the goddess, Lilith?

When I was just entering into adulthood I stayed over at a friend's place. While sleeping that particular night I felt the weight of a woman on my chest. Similar to when someone straddles on top of you so you have full access to whichever hole you desire to lick. The weight was substantial and as we do sometimes when we sleep, I attempted to brush away the cause of the pressure. It was only when my hand and arm passed through what should have been a physical body, did I panic a bit. I slept quite a few weeks with a knife, close at hand. Looking back I reflect on two things. The first thing was that I believe it was a visit from Lilith or one of her subordinates. This was the spark that planted the seed in me and began the process of awakening. The other thing was I was happy it did not return, as I suspect slashing at an entity with a knife in this realm, may have been hazardous.

From that age of eighteen through about thirty I remained religious and attempted to be a very good Christian. However like any seed planted, given the proper time for germination, it will sprout. If we choose to take care of the tender seedling it may grow into an enormous tree.

During these roughly twelve years, many things occurred and my life was in a state of constant exposure to many things that needed no labels. Although quite a few years prior I learned that cousins can make each other feel pleasure and orgasm together. Unfortunately Yahweh said this was bad for two girls to pleasure each other. Everything I experienced that brought me happiness, like when I was nineteen and came home drunk. I was partying with friends and had a short skirt with no panties on. When I arrived home I tossed my purse and sank to the floor so the room would stop spinning. I awoke sometime later as my dog had his head between my thighs and was lapping away at my soaking wet crotch. Evidently Yahweh prohibits this as well. I also experienced many spiritual things like the pitter patter of slapping hands along the ceiling of a room I occupied although I saw no one making the sounds or at night alone in the forest the sounds of heavy loads and men moving through the forest in a place historically known as a site according to old stories, notches were cut by the warriors of Kalanikupule as sites to place cannons. These high positions were ideal to rake the invading armies of Kamehameha. The cannons supposedly were taken from the ill-fated ship Fair American. The Battle of Nuuanu Pali, although primarily fought with spears and clubs, featured these newfangled cannons banging away at invading hoards from the south on O'ahu. Unfortunately Yahweh apparently frowned on this ability and it was wrong.

Although I struggled to be a good christian, I thought of my cousin teaching me the joys of female companionship and it wasn't long before I was hitting on other girls, and enjoying how fun mutual finger banging or tribbing sessions were, however the Bible said this was wrong.

I could go on and on, however at about thirty, the seedling blossomed and I began to notice strange things in the Bible. As an example when was woman created? Genesis 1:27 says God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. Yet in Genesis 2:20-22, And Adam gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for Adam there was not found an help meet for him. And the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof; And the rib, which the Lord God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man.

So how can such a colossal screw up occur? Many believe that they are both correct. In the first chapter Lilith was with Adam. After she departed then a second wife was made, Eve.

If one can not believe one thing in the Bible, it calls into question more and more.

Only after I began the process of awakening, recognizing how evil the biblical entity was, did I begin reading other religious texts, eventually researching and reading about occult subjects as well.

Eventually as I began to reflect and draw my own conclusions did I determine that many of the ancient Goddesses were Lilith and I began acknowledging and working with her. This process also required a lot of time and research. As any newborn learning to walk, I was the same. Years of Christian programming needed to be stripped away to begin to fully understand and appreciate the Divine Feminine.

I always felt a calling to share with others a way for their salvation and share with them the love of our creator. I never at the time suspected it was to be as Priestess for Lilith and not the fake demigod Yahweh.

I have been shown by Lilith that I am fulfilling my purpose she has for me and as a reward I have feed from her divine crotch as my reward.

I have seen you mention that you don't like to intentionally harm other; that everything should be consensual?

When it comes to harming another, yes I believe that it should be consensual. To rape or force your self, is oppressive and demonstrates the traits of Yahweh. Now role play is entirely acceptable.

In the physical realm we are each subjected to regulatory compliance and may have to abide by social and religious limitations. To violate these may result with incarceration. To explore and partake in the Astral or Dream realms, there are no limitations. I have more fun and participate more in these realms than I do in the physical.

Let's be transparent, after having your face between the thighs of the creator, suckling from her clit, while sucking off hordes of demons, enjoying all forms of bestiality, and there is no such concept as age. This is a limitation reserved in the physical realm, how can a comparison be made?

When are we going to see your first fictional story? Haha ... I know I have been pushing you a little towards that. What are your feelings about story writing?

I continue to work for a completion of my first fictional story, however researching, posting to encourage others, and work always seem to keep me from completion.

In the short time we have been uploading your blog post, you have interested a lot of readers. What do you want readers to know about you, that I haven't already covered?

Spiritual warfare is a concept that many Christians believe. It is fighting against the work of Lilith and Lucifer. It is based on the biblical belief in evil spirits or demons. Various congregations have adopted a strategy to repel such forces, based on their doctrine of demonology. Prayer is a common form of spiritual warfare, however they also include exorcism, the laying of hands, fasting, praise and worship, and anointing with oil.

Unfortunately, it is a losing and fictitious battle, as many spirits, entities, Gods and Goddesses predate their fictitious religious head.

Let there be a mass exodus as millions upon millions of souls flee the gospel, by using the power of lust and pornography. This is accomplished easily through social media or even as simple as going into a church service and placing pornographic images inside the bibles and hymnals found in the pews.

Hold up those which mock the church. Blasphemy is powerful and to share blasphemous pornography is a supercharged weapon. If you know of anyone that enjoys this, foster and nourish this desire.

Exclude the church from its position as a pillar in this country. We must silence the voice of the church. If you know of anyone in the government at any level, you should empower and elevate them as they are an enemy of the church.

We may erode the reputation of ministers, priests, pastors making them ineffective. Ineffectual ministers are unable to deliver the gospel. This will snuff out the fire in their hearts.

Bless those who curse the church, and curse those who bless the church. Remember to always humiliate the church.

If you are reading this, then you are a warrior and likely a follower of Lucifer or Lilith. As Christians believe spiritual warfare is a battle against Satan. They believe that standing firm in their faith, remaining strong in their Lord, and pursuing the ultimate victory of demolishing arguments against the knowledge of God.

Your enemies are the church and their leaders. Target their followers, lead them to a life of lust and perversion and simply enjoy every victory each of them.

The next time you find yourself in a church and you see a woman sitting by herself, it may be me.

Thank Hoku for being so open and sharing so much. We need to have a three-way-dialogue with Lucy Az — that would make an interesting post — thank you also for all your thoughtfulness and inspiration in your writings — And don't forget to start that "story" project ... I love the idea of "Love Boat" ... and maybe we can explore my thoughts about "Fantasy Island" (The Evil Version) ... Hail Lilith. Hail Hoku!

WAS JESUS THE HISTORICAL FIGURE OF DIVUS JULIUS, THE GOD TO WHICH JULIUS CAESAR WAS ELEVATED?

I am not claiming that Julius Caesar WAS Jesus. I am suggesting that if one looks at the history and life of Julius Caesar and then compare it to the biblical tale of Jesus, it is remarkable how the two match up. I have long suspected that the Roman Empire invented Christianity and this contains some interesting reading.

<https://www.carotta.de/subseite/texte/esumma.html>

ICONOGRAPHY OF CAESAR DO NOT FIT OUR IDEA OF HIM.

The mental block which prevents us from entertaining the thought that Jesus could be Divus Julius, the deified Caesar, is not only due to the image we have of Jesus, but also due to the one we carry around of Caesar. When we hear the name Caesar, we think of the general and dictator, and if we think of him as a writer at all, we only think of him as a reporter of his own military and political activities. Other aspects - especially the Clementia Caesaris, Caesar as Pontifex Maximus and Divus Julius - are indeed known to the specialists, but are repressed in the collective mind.

JESUS' LIFE IS IDENTICAL TO THE LIFE OF CAESAR.

Both Julius Caesar and Jesus began their careers in northern countries: Caesar in Gaul and Jesus in Galilee.

Both cross a fatal river: the Caesar crossed the Rubicon and Jesus crossed the Jordan;

Both then enter cities: Caesar entered Corfinium and Jesus entered Cafarnaum.

Caesar finds Corfinium occupied by a man of Pompey and besieges him, while Jesus finds a man possessed by an impure spirit.

There are similarity in structure as well as in place names: Gallia and Galilaea, Corfiniu and Cafarnaum, occupied or besieged and possessed (both known as obsessus in Latin). The similarities remain consistent throughout (when occupation or besieging is referred to in the one text, possession is used in the other, etc.)

PEOPLE IN THE STORIES OF CAESAR AND OF JESUS ARE STRUCTURALLY THE SAME PEOPLE, EVEN BY NAME AND LOCATION:

Caesar - Jesus

Pompey - John (the Baptist)

Antonius - Simon

Lepidus - Peter

(Decimus) Junius (Brutus) - Judas

(Marcus Junius) Brutus - Barabbas

Octavianus (Augustus) - John (the disciple)

Nicomedes of Bithynia - Nicodemus of Bethania

Cleopatra - (Mary) Magdalene

Julia (widow of Marius) - Mary

The Senate - The Sanhedrin

Gaul - Galilee

Rubicon - Jordan

Corfinium - Cafarnaum

Rome - Jerusalem

MY CONCLUSION:

Regardless of your spirituality, research, read, and consider the information. For myself, I have long ago determined what I believe and what I do not believe. Do not believe in something simply because others do so.

Research, Think, Reflect, and Decide.

LEGEND OF MERMAID TEARS

Sea glass is often called “Mermaid Tears.” Here is the legend of the mermaid tears and why people call sea glass mermaids tears.

The maidens could change the mighty course of nature, but were forbidden to do so by Neptune, the stern, watchful god of the sea.

One dark, storm-ravaged night, with sails ripping and masts cracking, a schooner fought to find safety in Friendly Cove off Nootka Island in the San Juans. The ship was familiar to the mermaid who swam along its side . . . she had weathered many crossings with the ship and its captain. As the ship heeled in the violent wind, the captain lost his hold on the wheel, tumbling perilously close to the raging sea. In an instant, the mermaid calmed the wind and tamed the waves, changing the course of nature and saving the life of a man she had grown to love from afar.

For her impetuous act, Neptune banished the sobbing mermaid to the oceans depths, condemning her for eternity never to surface or swim with the ships again. To this day, her gleaming tears wash up on the beaches as sea glass . . . crystalline treasures in magic sea colors, an eternal reminder of true love.

LENT and LILITH'S CONNECTION

“ I shall give up the holy trinity for Lent,” said an awakened woman.

Yahweh never instituted Lent, a pagan observance connecting debauchery to the supposed resurrection of a false Messiah. The Abrahamic sheep who observe Lent may be religious, dedicated and sincere, however they are blinded by their individual and collective ignorance.

Lent originated in ancient Sumeria, and among them Lent seems to have been an indispensable preliminary to the great annual festival in commemoration of the death and resurrection of Tammuz!

Tammuz (Dumuzid) is an ancient god associated with shepherds and the primary consort to the Goddess Lilith, aka Inanna or (Ishtar).

In the Epic of Gilgamesh, Tablet VI, Tammuz was listed as one of Ishtar's past lovers, who was turned into an allalu bird with a broken wing. Tammuz was associated with fertility and vegetation. The hot dry summers of Mesopotamia were believed to be the cause of Tammuz's yearly death. People all across the land would engage in public ritual mourning for him believing that his rebirth would mean the regeneration of life within nature.

Similar feasts are found throughout peoples of antiquity. For instance, the ancient Egyptians observed a forty day fast in honor of Osiris.

Although Christians believe the purpose of Lent is the preparation of the believer for Easter through prayer, doing penance, mortifying the flesh, repentance of sins, almsgiving, simple living and self-denial in preparation of celebration of Easter Sunday recalls the resurrection of JC.

It is nothing more than merging other religious beliefs from other societies and using the combining of these ancient practices to pacify the early christian church.....

A power grab, after all, the “good” book says nothing about Lent or Easter.

LILITH & NAAMAH

While conducting some research concerning Lilith and Naamah, I discovered something interesting concerning the Queen of Sheba and King Solomon.

Someone once inquired if The Queen of Sheba was actually Lilith. At the time I did not believe so, however as knowledge is a gift from Lilith, I embrace what she shares with me. Although she may not provide answers immediately or on our time schedule, she guided me to the following:

At the time when King Nebuchadnezzar took prisoner the men, women and children of Judea and forced them to be carried the banks of the Tigris and the Euphrates rivers, the language of everyday life in Assyria and Babylonia had ceased to be that which has come down to us in the cuneiform inscriptions, and had become Aramaic, the common language of Southwestern Asia.

We may assume that in Judea the language commonly used in the 5th century B.C. was Aramaic. It was from a Targum. A Targum is a translation or paraphrase of some portion of the Old Testament Scriptures in the Chaldee or Aramaic language or dialect. It was in a Targum that some information regarding the aforementioned question: was Lilith actually the Queen of Sheba?

In the Targum to Job 1:15 the name Sheba, meaning the Sabaens, is translated as "Lilith, queen of Zemargad."

While Lilith and Naamah thus have become misunderstood and considered by many as unmistakably evil spirits, at least one time in history they assumed human form. This was to test King Solomon's wisdom by assuming the form of two prostitutes. They went to Solomon asking for his judgment in their quarrel over the surviving child:

Then came two harlots to King Solomon, and they were Lilith and Naamah. Lilith, who strangles the children because she cannot set up for herself, from one of them, a screen to be a hiding place for her and the other is Naamah.

One night David was asleep in the camp in the desert, and in his dream Naamah coupled with him and bore Adad.

And when they asked him "What is your name?" he answered, "My name is Ad, and they called him Ashm'dai. He is Ashmodai, the King of the demons who deprived Solomon of his kingdom.

King Solomon, it may be remarked here, "had dominion over the demons, spirits and Lilin, and knew the language of each . . . and when his heart was merry with wine, he would command the wild animals, the fowl of heaven, and the creeping things of the earth, as well as the demons, spirits and Lilin, to dance before him."

It was alleged that because of Solomon's power over the demons that he was able to resist the Queen of Sheba, who was none other than Lilith.

SHIT TO PONDER

Although it appears according to that specific ancient text, Lilith was Sheba, I know have additional questions, such as Naamah seduced Solomon's father and she and King David bore "The King of Demons?"

Is it possible that the baby King Solomon was going to cut in half, was Lilith and Naamah's?

LILITH GLORIFICATION

1 Corinthians 6:19–20 (ESV)

19 Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own, 20 for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body.

I say, “Do you not know that your body is a temple of Lilith within you, whom she has given? You are not your own, for you were descended from her, so glorify Lilith with your body.”

According to the collection of 66 fairytales (Bible) Paul, one of JC’s main propagandists attempted to convince Corinth to flee from sexual immorality, “Do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own; you were bought at a price. Therefore honor God with your body.”

Those who do not belong to Christ do not have the Spirit of Christ residing in them. Therefore, their bodies are not a temple of the Holy Spirit. Clearly, then, the greatest thing we can do for our bodies is to make them into a temple for Lilith not Yahweh.

Who did the city of Corinth worship? None other than the beloved Dark Goddess Lilith, in the form of the Ancient Greek Goddess Aphrodite.

Aphrodite

Aphrodite is associated with love, beauty, pleasure, passion, and procreation. The followers were largely derived from the Phoenician Goddess Astarte, and Semitic Goddess Ishtar.

Her primary festival was known as Aphrodisia, celebrated during mid summer. She was worshiped as a warrior Goddess and the patron Goddess of prostitutes.

Therefore I say invite the Dark Goddess to reside in each of us, therefore we honor Lilith with our bodies as they are not our own, but hers. As the sheep believe that their bodies are temples of Yahweh, so shall each of our bodies be temples unto Lilith and we are to use them to glorify and project our lust to glorify Lilith.

LILITH IS GOD

Yahweh is Lucifer

Search scripture about the great deceiver

Yes we are told that there was a war in heaven.

It is obvious that the good guys lost that war and the bad guys triumphed.

Later they brought this war to earth.

The serpent god, mankind's benefactor, has been trying to assist mankind in regaining his true heritage as a citizen of the stars, But Yahweh and his kind, the enemies of mankind, have always found ways to usurp mankind's endless quest for liberation and dignity.

The book of Enoch tells us that it was the Fallen Angels, the ones deposed in a celestial coup de tat , that taught mankind the use of fire, how to mine and refine metals, how to heal with herbs, irrigation, even introduced certain grain hybrids that make up our staple diets today, how to map and follow the stars, and of course, wisdom and philosophy.

Is it any wonder why the book of Enoch never made it to the canonical bible?

On the other hand, Yahweh is not credited with teaching or bequeathing any special knowledge of science, metallurgy , agriculture or medicine, I mean anything at all to mankind, except of course, for wars and warcraft.

LILITH SELF LOVE RITUAL

The Priestess stands before the vessel of Lilith, both women begin summoning the primal daemonic essence of Lilith.

Upon the Altar a Skull Fetish of Az-Lilith is centered, representing the spirit chamber of which she dwells on earth, the Three shades into One.

The incense of Venus is burnt and filled the chamber with a sweet aroma. An image of Lilith is behind the Skull and a single whip laying loosely around four red candles.

The Priestess and her female partner performs invocations to Lilith – both recite according to their instinctual design, this is the path of which Az-Lilith hears their calls.

“By flame am I consumed, Her Lust. Immolate me my sister of Lilitu”

The priestess whips the ass of the female, with each lash a name of Lilith is recited by both, the willing embodiment invokes Lilith with all of her heart. Soon both become lost in their own ecstasy of invocation.

The Priestess is then whipped in the same fashion while reciting again the names.

You may ask yourself, what are her names or how many lashes do each receive.

Lilith (Lilitu), Babylon, Vadak, Duzhyaitya, Khnanthaiti, Mush, Kalubtza, Pirtsha, Abito, Amozrpho, Odamu, Kephido, Haqash, Abizo, Shatrina, and Tatrota.

One lash of the whip, for each of her names.

LILITH, YESUA, AND HIS MOTHER

LILITH, YESUA, AND HIS MOTHER

The Sea of Galilee where many alleged incidents of Yesua occurred was named after the goddess Lilith and it was an area sacred to her. It was also a pilgrimage place where people went to worship her. It is easy to see how Galilee = Lilee=Lilith=Lily. It is worth pointing out that it is actually a lake and no sea at all. As with many biblical stories, facts don't really matter as it is more impressive if miracles were performed at the sea?

Lilith was worshiped there as the goddess of the lake. By calling it a sea it equates Lilith with the goddess of the sea, Aphrodite, as well as with Jesus's mother and Mary Magdalene who are both named after the sea too. (Mary = mere, the sea)

The fact that Yesua found his disciples there suggests that he was seeking out Lilith followers as his disciples, which is significant as she is considered by some to be a sort of she-devil like Hecate, Diana, Artemis or Ishtar, etc. It also signifies that Yesua was staying true to the Hebrew tradition of goddess worship and especially of their worship of the Hebrew mother of God Asherah, with Lilith being one of her daughters.

In the New Testament the titles of Asherah such as 'mother of God' and 'Queen of Heaven' are bestowed on Yesua's mother, signifying that she is to be considered an incarnation of the goddess Asherah. As her name 'Mary' meant 'sea' (mere) as well as a 'horse' (mare), 'marry', 'mar' and 'nightmare' it means that she was thought to represent Lilith as well. This may also explain why the writers had Jesus treat his mother with disdain, ignored her, called her 'woman' and appeared to disown her on the occasion when he said 'who is my mother?'.

Lilith was worshiped as the daughter of God by many cultures and she is why the churches have to adamantly insist that their God doesn't have a mother, or a daughter, or a sister to try and distance themselves from her because they know their God can't compete with them and will inevitably come out second best in any disagreement or conflict.

The rite of circumcision was considered to be a representation of what Lilith would do to people if she is not given the proper respect, or is being taken advantage of, or abused..

One of the reasons why the catholic church is named after the cat is to honor Lilith's tradition and of course to honor Cybele the 'Magna Mater' or 'Great Mother' of Rome – the universal mother. Jesus too was named after the horse, another of her totem. The Hebrew word for horse being 'sus'.

Lilith is later adopted into Christianity as the elusive, mysterious Holy Spirit/Holy Ghost and this is why the churches have to hide who the actual identity of who the Holy Spirit is. They will say they don't know who or what the Holy Spirit is.

It is also interesting that The word 'Holy' in Hebrew is translated from Lilith's other name 'Qadesh'. This means that the 'Holy Bible' was named after her and that the Bible was originally meant to be dedicated to her worship, before its censorship.

Lilith was called Qadesh or Kadesh by the Egyptians, Anatolians, Babylonians, Canaanites and Hebrews and she is often depicted with wings and birds feet.

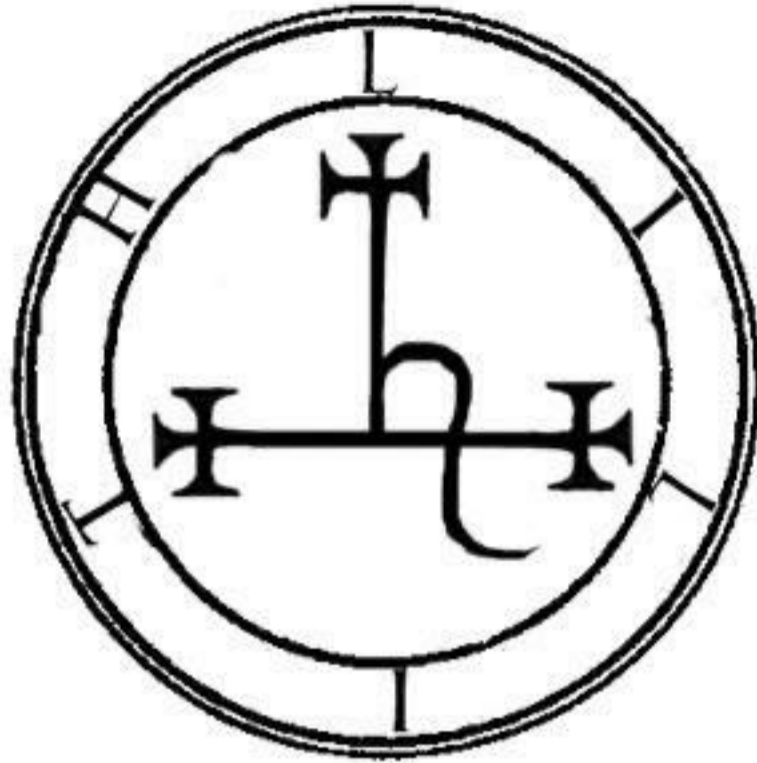

The beautiful lily flower is named after her and is her symbol and it was also the symbol of the vulva. The Bible describes how Solomon decorated God's temple with lilies and Yesua's direction or parable to 'consider the lilies of the field' was another way of saying 'consider Lilith', or 'consider the mother of God', or 'consider the vulva'.

CONCLUSION:

As the stories and tales in the Bible were taken from other societies and the names changed to fit this Heleneazation of a new religion, why not say it. I say the Virgin Mary considered an incarnation of the goddess Asherah is to symbolize being The Goddess Lilith.

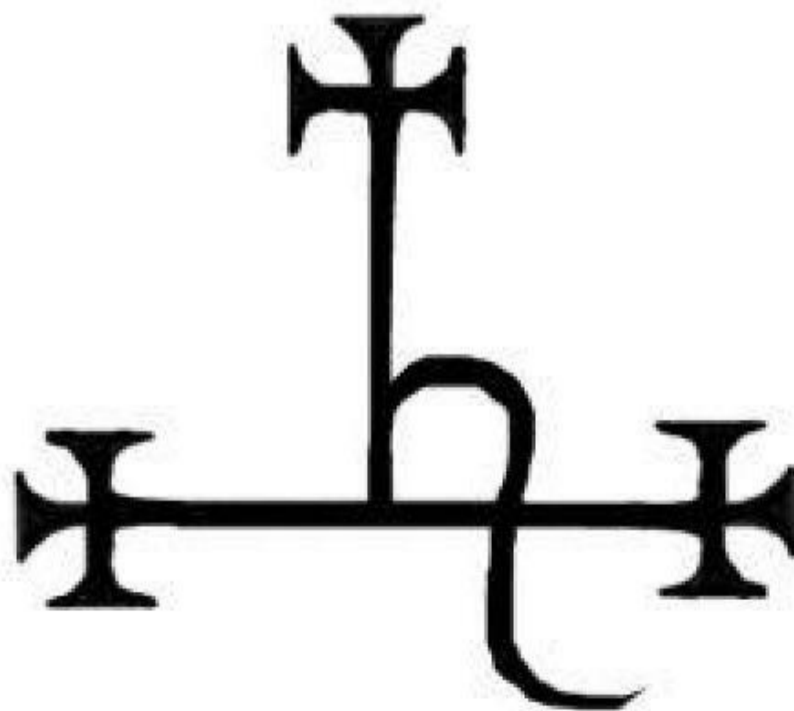

After all, why would her statue fit so nicely between my temple's pillars and through the gateway?

LILITH'S SIGIL

Teresa Az in 2018 shared the following:

Mother Lilith signifies different things to different people, her sigil, likewise. For some time, I've been wondering what her sigil means and it finally came to me last night.

The symbol in the center is Saturn's symbol, a scythe or sickle ♄. A scythe is a tool for cutting down things especially weed and chaff. This symbol has been traced to Byzantine codices found in Greek papyri.

The two 'fallen' crosses, on either side means that Judaism and Christianity has failed, is no longer of any significance nor influence in the world.

HOKU'S VIEW:

I would like to add to this as well. Take the letters in a name, this case LILITH. You want to cross out all vows and duplicate letters.

As such removing the two "I" and the "L"

The letters remaining are LTH

Now if you look at Lilith's well known sigil, you will see that the "T" is capitalized and flipped upside down. The "h" is lowercase and imposed over the "T" as well as the "L".

This is is how the sigil was formed with the crosses added to the ends of the "T"

HOW THE LILITHIAN SPIRIT OPERATES IN A CHURCH

I have never seen any writings on how the Lilithian Spirit operates in a church but I believe I know and she has guided me first hand. I have discovered how her spirit causes division and even destroys a church. The Lilithian Spirit is also associated with lady angels, as many will bring these images and statues into their home. As anyone who studied Abrahamic religious texts knows, it is a male oriented, female hating religion and all angles are male. This spirit can affect christian homes as well as their churches. This spirit causes division and even guides the congregation's children. This spirit is also associated with seduction and the gift of Lust.

In a church atmosphere this spirit will slowly start causing division in the church congregation. It may attach itself to the ministry, but the person being directed by this spirit does not have to be a part of the ministry. The person being directed by this spirit may sing loudly during services attempting to join in with the congregation but is instead disruptive, often she is gifted with the sound of singing that sounds similar to orgasmic joy. The person being directed by this spirit will also attempt to drain the finances of the church and therefore may be in some type of leadership position (or married to someone in leadership) that could give them access to the finances. This person will typically have lady angels in their home! They can also give what people believe are prophetic messages. The person being directed by this spirit will be controlling; yet they can act completely innocent and play on the emotions of others. Putting people against each other while they themselves will step out of the picture and leave everyone to fight.

Perhaps the best way to define the Lilithian Spirit is to say it characterizes anyone who enjoys engaging in immorality, idolatry, false teaching, and unrepentant sin. This spirit may have similar characteristics to the Jezebel spirit – but this spirit is not Jezebel.

Lilith is almost like a mother to Jezebel and I am sure they can operate together but do not have to. The Lilithian Spirit can act without its sister counterpart and vice versa. I believe the person being directed by the Lilithian Spirit is typically female but I believe they can also be male.

As I previously shared the person being guided by this spirit is controlling, but not everyone will see it. To some the person will seem quiet and innocent and even meek at times , while to others they will see the controlling and loud and aggressive side of the person. Some people will be so fooled that even when the person displays their loud side publically they will still appear to be innocent and perhaps even humble to those subjected to the magick. The person having this spirit is very deceptive!

When I first discovered the power of performing sex magick during a service, I recall the feeling of Lilith's love and encouragement. She guided my hand between my legs, rolling my fingers over my swollen clit as I acknowledged her and concentrated on discovering what secret knowledge she would soon share with me. As my abdomen tightness and quivered, and the feeling of her offering releasing inside my crotch, and spilling onto the pew, I thanked her for her guidance as I wiped my cum covered fingers off on the church provided bible.

Again, the Lilithian Spirit is very effective inside churches and congregations. This spirit is so powerful once it settles in that often the congregation and the physical space become the Temple of Lilith. The enlightenment and glorious affects of this spirit are lasting even after the person being directed by the spirit leaves a church. As I pass a church or congregation I previously dedicated to Lilith, I call on her spirit to guide me to the next conquest.

LILITHIANISM

One of the most important questions that I have been asked is how to develop a relationship with Lilith. If you want to take a spiritual or religious approach with Lilith, having a relationship with her may be a rewarding experience, letting you know that Lilith is with you every step of the way on your journey down the left hand path.

Nobody starts out in any endeavor or spiritual journey knowing everything there is to know; nor do we have an intimate relation with our gods or goddesses as soon as we make a commitment or acknowledgment. A relationship takes time to cultivate. It may be like cultivating marijuana as you must plant the seed, water and feed it, keep the weeds out, and before you know it, you will have a beautiful plant to behold.

Here are some steps towards achieving your goal.

DEVELOPER A RELATIONSHIP

Start small and work your way out from there. You should consider that a relationship with Lilith is a personal experience, so what other people experience, or don't experience, may not be your own experience. Taking this into consideration, I can only offer generalities regarding a relationship with Lilith, and discuss my own personal experience to give you some insight into the process as well.

My discovery of Lilith was filled with worshipful rituals, binary beats, consuming any podcast on Lilith, and transgressive acts. This is not so uncommon among new followers who are finding their place in the world. I would acknowledge Lilith daily and prior to work I would gathering my tools, and wondering out to the beach. It was an interesting experience. Because I am a spiritual person, I had always felt that all it would take would be for me to reach out to Lilith and that being would answer in return – so I never really took it on faith or hope that I would get results. After all I was formerly a follower of an Abrahamic religion and became quite use to never observing any acknowledgment. I just threw myself into the work and got it done. To my surprise the results were almost immediate and never ceased to amaze me!!

One of the most important aspects of my ritual making was my bond with Lilith. I thought that my pact put me in a position of sincerity with an entity that was so hated in this world yet had so much power over it. I would not recommend this to new followers of course, because after all this time I can see how much power and energy is in the simple act of inviting her into my body, mind, and soul.

So start out by spending the next year studying and practicing your rituals, and by then you should have a clearer view of what you want to do with your pact if you so decide to make one with Lilith.

STUDY THE HISTORY OF LILITH

The history of Lilith is a long and winding road. It contains interesting insights into the character of Lilith through the myths, legends and stories surrounding her name. Beginning with the early gnostics, and continuing to this day, people's views of Lilith have changed and evolved to mirror current events in history. In developing a relationship with Lilith, its important to consider the history that is behind the name. After all you would not want to get involved with someone if you didn't know their history, their likes or dislikes, and what they are generally about, would you? That truly would be a leap of blind faith! I don't recommend blind faith. I instead recommend that you study as much as you can about the history and character of Lilith, both in past times and our modern views of Lilith beginning with a cursory search on the internet.

CREATE YOUR OWN RITUAL

Develop your own rituals and use others as a guide but do what pleases you.

There are many examples of ritual to be found on the internet and in books. A ritual is like a recipe, it contains essential ingredients that when put together create an interesting and symbolic experience. Writing your own rituals is not so complicated. Its important to consider that just because a ritual has been used by others and it carries the powers and energies of those who worked with it before you, it is not necessarily the best formula for your particular situation.

One of the simplest personal rituals I perform is the use of a Lilith rosary I crafted, to honor her while mocking my former enslavement under christianity. Daily I go to the beach, recite a prayer I discovered in the Liber Lilith, and simply pick up some sea glass.

Here is a basic template: Most rituals have an opening, a declaration of intent, and a closing. It really is this simple. For instance with an evocation/invocation of Lilith, you could prepare your ritual space, make your ritual invocation, declare what you want out of your ritual, and then perform a closing or departing or a thanks at the end.

WATCH THE SIGNS

A common experience for any Lilithian is to have dreams about Lilith. How much of this is their own psychology or imagination at work and how much of it is Lilith in communication is difficult to say, as dreams are a personal experience. I know for my own life, the dreams that I've had about Lilith have come at critical times and stages and they have guided me and kept me on the path. But just because you don't have a dream about Lilith does not mean that she is not in communication with you.

Its important to just let go and enjoy your experience with Lilith, instead of obsessing over every little sign and symbol in your life. Just remember that Lilithianism isn't christianity and to my knowledge, Lilith isn't out there giving orders to people and is not seeking revenge on those who "disobey".

Its important to keep perspective in this regard and to view your experiences as a part of the whole. Do not take your experiences for granted but don't obsess over them, either. What you experience will be a personal journey, unlike that of any other that you will meet in Lilithianism.

CONCLUSION

Whatever you decide, don't give up! it takes time to develop a relationship. Just like in real life it comes in steps. You can't have a relationship with someone without first initiating contact, learning about that person and making an effort to make yourself a part of their life. Lilith won't come chasing after you and there is much work to be done in this regard especially when you are new to the path.

So take it a day at a time and don't be hard on yourself, and remember that your experience won't match what others have gone through. In the end you should make an effort to meditate on Lilith or perform rituals in her name, to learn about Lilith's history, and to work at learning about her every day for at least a year before you make a solid commitment one way or the other.

LUSTING FOR LOVERS

Ezekiel 23:19-20

Yet she became more and more promiscuous as she recalled the days of her youth, when she was a prostitute in Egypt. There she lusted after her lovers, whose genitals were like those of donkeys and whose emission was like that of horses.

I know many who follow my posts, may find it strange that I still reflect on some of the passages and verses. This remains my single most favorite two verses in the book.

I have been thinking and reflecting on this and decided to conduct some additional research and share the results. I have spent literally several days reviewing video footage of horse and donkey emissions and size. I believe I have a responsibility to provide you with accurate information and as such, I am prepared to spend months on end researching if horse emissions are larger than that of a donkey or which has better genitals.

At face value I believe this woman in the passage knew what she wanted. It's a good teachable moment for this reason too: the bible doesn't sugarcoat. It doesn't apologize for the way it portrays women. According to many teachings in the evil book, a woman is about as equal to either a dog or swine.

THE ABRAHAMIC EXPLANATION

Israel is portrayed in the prophetic image as one of two sisters, Oholibah, the other being Oholah. In the bible, these two were depicted as betrothed to Yahweh and unfaithful to him. A common theme in the throughout these stories is the faithless desire of Yahweh's 's bride to return to Egypt where they were enslaved and where Yahweh had warned them never to return under any circumstance.

The lewd image here is meant to be striking and to promote disgust at the lust of the Israel after the ways of their slavery in Egypt, as though Egypt had been the abusive lover of her adulterous youth. Yahweh's judgment is that Egypt, "her lovers," along with Assyria and Babylon, will turn against her. She will turn to them for support, and they will crush and oppress her as part of Yahweh 's judgment for their rebellion against him.

MY EXPLANATION

There are some that suspect that men in Egypt were running around with donkey sized cocks and balls between their legs, as a result of some collateral effect from one of Yahweh's plagues during the time of Exodus. Think of it as if similar to what happened to the folks in Chernobyl. I blame Chernobyl on Yahweh, as it is the sort of thing he apparently enjoys doing, he punished Communist children by giving them extra appendages and nipples on their thumbs because their parents used nuclear devices without his blessing.

Just like the children at Chernobyl, Lilith and Lucifer elevated them to a higher degree of sexuality, as a demonstration of their love and suffering they endured at Yahweh's actions. I mean who wouldn't love a cock on their hand or extra nipples? It was the same in Egypt, I suppose. Yahweh fucked things up and Lilith needed to make things correct. What better way than to increase genital size, thereby increasing vast quantities of emissions. More cum and huge cocks, makes great joy and Lust for any of the end users.

BONUS CONTENT FROM RESEARCH

I came across sever articles regarding donkey genitalia. In the northern Colombian town of Cartagena, adolescent boys are having regular sex with donkeys. This tradition is widely known and accepted in parts of Colombia as a rite of passage for many boys to become men. Fathers will often take their young boys out to teach them how to have intercourse with the farm animals. Once these young men get a taste of intercourse with donkeys it appears hard to give up. Many cases have been reported of married men repeatedly cheating on their wives with donkeys well into adulthood. The practice itself is believed by colombians to benefit the boys a great deal by giving them a means to practice having sex and better prepare them to please their future wives. As Colombia is an extremely catholic nation, pre or extramarital sex is extremely frowned upon. So using Donkey's is just a surprising loophole for horny youth. They also believe that having sex with donkeys will make their penises bigger as well as prevent them from becoming homosexual.

What exactly do you think the mothers of Cartagena do with their adolescent daughters, while their husbands are teaching their sons the pleasures of donkey sex, hmmm? I suspect they are discovering and assessing the emissions of horses.

MAGICK

I find it necessary to share some differences between what people consider white Magick and Black Magick. Essentially, white magick is magick that the speaker considers to be acceptable magic, while black magick is that which is unacceptable, and the limits of acceptable and unacceptable are defined by culture.

Today, many consider white magick to be magick that is only beneficial to the caster or others, such as healing and divination. Black magick is magick that is meant to cause harm to another person, what might be called a curse or a hex. The term white also sometimes implies spiritual magick.

Those who describe themselves as black practitioners are likely to use somewhat different definitions. To them, black is what is unacceptable to society at large, although clearly not unacceptable to them. This doesn't necessarily mean it's harmful; there are a wide range of things that might make it unacceptable, including the powers invoked, the methods used, and the outcomes desired.

For those who believe that all magick is evil, there is no such thing as white magick, although they may very well still employ the term black magick or the black arts.

Plenty of practitioners avoid using either term because of their subjectivity. For many, magick is simply magick, and there is no need to color code it.

There also are those which practice magic. These tend to perfect parlor tricks and influence others through manipulating and slight of hand.

Simply because I am a Priestess of Lilith, acknowledge my Father Lucifer, does not label me a dark practitioner. Many of these exist within the ranks of organized religion.

Research, Analyze, Decide, and Grow.

MARY WAS NO PROSTITUTE

I have read many posts and stories that claimed Mary the mother of Jesus was a prostitute. This is simply not true and I am deeply offended!

SACRED SERVICE

Prostitution is not just the world's oldest profession, it is also one of the most ancient forms of worship. For millennia, sacred prostitutes have brought glory to their faith. Some work to profit their patron temple or deity. Others practice "imitative magic" – reenacting divine copulation in fertility rituals. Occasionally sex is used as an evangelizing technique. Given the powerful emotions and physical ecstasy of sex, sacred prostitution will endure.

The Greek historian Herodotus noted that every Babylonian woman was required to participate in ritual prostitution at least once at the Temple of Lilith. The sacrament was believed to be a prayer or hope for fertility.

Sacred prostitution did occur for millennia in Mesopotamia. Temple Priestesses of the Dark Goddess Lilith would participate in ritual sex with male visitors. Known as "Nin-gig", they were entirely different than the secular prostitutes, who plied their trade in this ancient land. Sumerians and Babylonians both participated in the practice.

Sacred marriage rituals between Ishtar and the shepherd god Dumuzi were considered essential to the yearly cycle. Many believe that Easter is a Christian appropriation of a holiday celebrating Ishtar.

I am not talking about Easter as we are entering into the Christian celebration of Jesus's birth.

WOMEN MADE SUBSERVIENT

Rumor has it that when the early Roman Catholic Church put their collective male heads together part of their goal was to discredit women, to keep them subservient and powerless.

Mary Magdaline the alleged prostitute, is often confused with Jesus's mother Mary. It was when the Bible was being edited that Mary Magdaline became a prostitute.

Mary wasn't a virgin, either. She couldn't have been a virgin if she was pregnant. Of course, the men didn't want to think of her doing the nasty so they made her a pregnant virgin at the same time they made Mary Magdaline a prostitute. And they made Jesus, the male, a god.

12 YEAR OLD SLUT

So, exactly how old was Mary when she had Jesus? Historians place Mary's age in the range of 12 to 14 years old when Jesus was born.

Mary was an adolescent 12 year old slut, not a prostitute! I know it seems shockingly young to be a mother. However, in the culture that Mary lived in at that time, young motherhood was commonplace. All over the region men were using adolescents in such a fashion.

Am I the only one that finds it strange that Mary's youth helped her choose awe for Yahweh rather than the cynicism that older people often struggle with in this fallen world.

Mary was able to handle her "calling" well because she focused well on developing a strong skill at sexual intercourse.

Merry Christmas !

MEN ARE AFRAID OF LILITH

Men feel threatened by Lilith. She threatens their position of power and their self-confidence. But we must understand the male paradox regarding Lilith: specifically because Lilith does not accept male domination nor suppress her wild sexuality from bursting forth as does Eve, she poses an erotic seduction that is very difficult for men to withstand.

Men yearn for a woman like Lilith, a woman who is able to express the fullness of her unbridled passions, who is willing to be a sexual creature, to be active in bed, to be a woman who derives great pleasure from sexuality and is not one bit ashamed of it, who is able to be both gross and refined, both sensual and seductive, a woman who is able to be both transparent and mysterious simultaneously.

Men yearn in the depths of their hearts for such a woman, who does not lecture them about morals, who does not have “headaches,” who does not all of a sudden need to prepare a child’s sandwich for school...

They yearn for a free and liberated woman who can tear them apart with her unbridled passions while never allowing herself to become taken for granted. Lilith is thus the object of male passion, of sexual fantasy, a never-ending adventure for men. But at the same time, she is also a threat for their orderly world. For this reason, “normal” men are very afraid of such a woman.

The Zohar states that both Adam and Jacob were afraid of Lilith’s power, which is why they perceived her in a negative way. But this was only on account of their own smaller statures compared to her, and not because she actually was like that. In fact, she is at a very high level. Perhaps even too high.

For this reason, a man usually decides to suppress his passions, to denigrate Lilith and to besmirch “women like that.” He may occasionally falter, and then he seeks her out discretely.

He will find her in the prostitute, in the courtesan, in the secret lover, in the dark romance, in the Internet pornography. She will seduce him in dreams and fantasies; she will be his femme fatale. Afterwards, he will lash out at himself (and at her), and endeavor to establish a society “without such disgraceful phenomena.” He will decry her, “Abomination!”

MISSIONARY DILEMMA

“And this gospel of the kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.”

Matthew 24:14

A very intelligent person shared with me that God’s plan to save humanity is to not interfere with free will. It began on the cross unfolds throughout the New Testament from the beginning to the book of Revelation. The Holy Spirit was released upon the earth, and through faith people are saved. He shared with me that once every tribe and tongue on earth has heard the message of salvation, then that’s when Christ returns. Ultimately victory over death for those who believe. I have heard similar messages through my life and always pondered the same question.

How can everyone hear God’s message if new people are born and others die?

According to global statistics, the world population on earth increases by 2.5 people every second. This increase appears to be extraordinary. It implies per minute: 150 people. However, this number is both commonly misunderstood and misinterpreted in articles and discussions as it does not imply 2.5 new born people in every second.

Rather, 4.3 people are born on average in every second while 1.8 die in the same time.

In a whole, this implies an increase in the global population of 2.5 people per second

(4.3 born people minus 1.8 dead people equals 2.5). Extrapolated, these numbers imply a number of 137 million people who are born in every year on a global level whilst 58 million people die in the same period of time.

CONCLUSION:

It appears that unless new people stop being produced, the second coming can not occur. I believe another example of science and theology conflicting with each other.

MORALITY

I believe in morality, but my own version of it. Morality is, simply put, the human attempt to define right and wrong, or good and bad.

If the alleged kingdom of gawd is a desolate place, without sexually liberated, open minded souls that recognize other entities and deities, those who choose to pleasure themselves openly, those that understand the offering of same sex passion, and like to have a good glass of wine, then why would one want to be there? To remind awakening souls that they are held captive in the bonds of religious slavery, an attempt is made to shame and instill guilt by citing the “Jesus and Holy Spirt,” myth.

I use the following example, a three year old child is found face down in a swimming pool, the distraught christian parents immediately begin CPR. It takes about 10 minutes for emergency medical services to arrive at the residence and assume the responsibility of attempting resuscitation. Unfortunately the young child is pronounced brain dead by medical professionals.

The mother and father explain to the surviving siblings that gawd took their brother to heaven to become an angel and they were so happy that he is in heaven.

Let that sink in for a moment, and ponder this.

Let's assume that god made the young boy jump into a pool, without knowing how to swim. I'd say that's pretty fucking evil and sadistic. What kind of parents tell their surviving children how glorious it is that the deceased is in heaven with his killer or how happy they are that he is with god.

This gawd is the same entity that murdered the entire population of earth, threatens to do so again, will not forgive blasphemy and tells people to kill all the men, women, and children but keep the virgins as sexual servants.

My Morality excludes mass murder, rapist, and xenophobic actions. Mother provides me with the tools to expose the evil or organized religion and those that demonstrate my love for mankind so much that I want to share knowledge and love.

MY OFFERING

Slowly and gently I use my tongue to explore the entire shape of your ear. As it glides over the entire outer edge, I gingerly skim the surface before I caress your earlobe with my lips. I whisper in your ear softly, “ut desiderium meum trado Lamia.”

Then I repeat the caressing on your opposite ear. Allowing my lips to close on your earlobe and sucking so delicately it is as though I am vacuuming a single bead of sweat.

I whisper in this ear as well, “ut desiderium meum trado Lamia.”

With my lust I offer you to Lilith.

HOW DO NUNS DEAL WITH SEXUAL URGES?

By Sister Hoku, The Order of the Daughters of our Mother Lilith

A question from Angel that I think many have wondered but never asked ...

Dear Sister Hoku, I would like to tell you that I have nothing but the utmost respect for you. My question is not meant to offend you in any way shape or form. I know that nuns are human like the rest of us. Do nuns ever have sexual urges, and if so how do you deal with the temptation of wanting sex.

Angel, I am not offended at all and am glad that you asked. You are right, nuns are human like you and everyone else.

Part of being human is being a sexual person — humans are attracted to other people, have romantic feelings and sexual urges. Nuns are no different; however, we choose not to act upon these natural, sexual feelings and urges with members of the opposite gender. Unless of course a ritual requires that we demonstrate acknowledgment of Mother's gift of Lust.

Think for example of other people in committed relationships. Just because you are married doesn't mean you don't find another person attractive or have great chemistry with someone. In fact married people might even "fall in love" with someone else, but that doesn't mean they have to act on it. Ignorant people of the Abrahamic religions make a choice to not act on those feelings. Same thing with nuns. We are deeply human and can have sexual urges or fall in love. Those of our Order are blessed as we follow the true doctrine Mother Lilith.

When I was discerning religious life and felt convinced it was for me, I fell in love with someone I'd know throughout school. Horrified that I fell in love while considering religious life, I went to my nun mentor and told her. I expected that she'd bid me farewell. To my surprise she did not and I should have known better because she is one of the most deeply loving and compassionate persons I know. Instead she said, "Wonderful!" She didn't tell me to stop discerning religious life nor did she tell me to cut off the relationship. She said to enjoy it! If we lose the capacity to fall in love, she said, then we lose the ability to truly open our hearts to The Dark Goddess, to the people with whom we live and minister, with The Dark Goddess's beautiful creation. It doesn't mean we have to express this love sexually. No she said we MUST demonstrate it through paying homage to her instead.

My nun was a great guide through that time because it was important for me to know how to deal with those feelings because they inevitably will arise if we are to be true lovers of The Dark Goddess. She instructed me to memorize Romans 12:1 "Present your bodies as living sacrifices..." however be sure that I do not fall into sin by coveting the opposite sex.

She showed me several ways to suppress feelings, some required only removing the black beaded rosary and cross from around my waist and rubbing it against my living Virgin Mary, which resides between all females legs. She had me sit down and carefully explained how it was important to rub the crucifix against Virgin Mary's face in clockwise and then counterclockwise circles. Like any good mentor, she hiked up her habit and said watch as I demonstrate the process. I counted her rubbing the crucifix six times clockwise, six times counter clockwise and six times she rubbed the crucifix down over the face of her Mary. Then I was forced to demonstrate I understood the methodology, however she made me demonstrate by using her Virgin Mary, not mine. To my surprise her Virgin Mary began to cry and weep tears of sticky clear liquid. She smiled and said this is how I need to deal with these feelings.

So, how do nuns deal with the temptation of wanting sex? I think the first thing is to remember that wanting sex isn't bad in and of itself. Sex can be a powerful experience of union and love. For a nun, we vow to be celibate and so we choose to express union and love in other ways, such as through our community life, our relationships, and our ministry. Often these three services are combined as we assist with Early Labor Induction (ELI) and retrieve these byproducts of pregnancy to bless them as we make them kiss each of our living Virgin Marys until the procedure is deemed a success. We have to acknowledge to ourselves a sexual urge we may have, not bury it as if it's not there, and find ways to deal with it in a healthy way.

Dealing with it may be solved by smearing the tears of the Living Virgin Mary across pages of the Bible, using our crucifix or even having another nun kiss your Living Statue of Virgin Mary. This is where being part of a community really helps because you are with women who have made the same choice and can support you and guide you through times like this.

Community life helps you tap into the relationships that truly sustain you, that give you a joy and intimacy that goes beyond any urge for sex. Often my sisters and I will make use of the many animals and take our mind off of these urges. Instead we bless these animals by having them lick the Living Virgin until each of them produce the holy tears. I'd be surprised if this were any different for married people.

I'd love to hear from nuns and others around this question. It is a great question for us to reflect on, and any dialog we can have on this would be especially helpful for those considering a religious life at The Order of the Daughters of our Mother Lilith.

Ockham's Razor

The idea that, in trying to understand something, getting unnecessary information out of the way is the fastest way to the truth or best explanation.

An all powerful and all knowing being, lacked the foresight that 1/3 of his angels would revolt, Lilith was not suitable to Adam and would join with Samael, Eve would eat the forbidden fruit, earthly beings would need to be destroyed in a great flood, and eventually would kill all the earthly beings a second time, by fire.....

Or

Apply Ockham's Razor and recognize the fairy tail for what it is.

THE ORGY AT SHITTIM

NUMBERS 25: 1-3 “While Israel was camped at Shittim or Acacia Grove, the men began to have sex with the Moabite women. It started when the women invited the men to their sex-and-religion worship. They ate together and then worshiped their gods. Israel ended up joining in the worship of the Baal of Peor. God was furious, his anger blazing out against Israel.”

Its important to know how the Kingdom of Moab was formed. It appeared that after Lot was intoxicated by his daughters, they fucked him for two consecutive days. Both daughters conceived and had sons. The eldest daughter named her son Moab, which means “from my father,” explicitly pointing to the union as an incestuous one. The younger daughter named her son Ben-Ammi, which means “son of my clan,” a more veiled reference to the situation. While the names of the sons are descriptive of their conception, they serve a negative etiological function for Israel’s neighbors and frequent enemies, the Moabites and the Ammonites.

BAAL-PEOR (LUCIFER): THE LORD OF THE OPENING

The people of Moab worship many Gods and Goddesses, however Baal-Peor was one of their primary Gods. Baal means Lord or Owner and refers to Lucifer. Peor means “Cleft” or “Gap”, from the word pa’ar meaning to open wide. The cleft or opening to which Peor referred to, was the woman ‘s pussy, cunt, snatch, vagina. The Goddess Lilith was the representation of the female genital part while Lucifer was the representation of the male genital part. While, all immoral sexual acts were considered an homage to Baal, the worship of Baal-Peor was considered to be the most obscene. The temples had dedicated male and female prostitutes (priests and priestess). Both anal and oral sex were practiced by same sex or opposite sex in order to commune with Baal-Peor. While male prostitutes participated in the act, only the feminine principle was glorified; man had to sacrifice his manhood to join in the act. In either case, he effeminized himself. This brought glory to Baal-Peor because the worshiper had to abase himself both physically and spiritually before the cleft. The rites of Baal-Peor only exalt the woman principle.

ASHTORETH (LILITH): GODDESS OF WAR AND FERTILITY

Ashtoreth was the goddess of war and fertility, called Ishtar by Assyrians and Babylonians, called Astarte by Greeks and Romans and called Tanith by North Africans. Considered the moon-goddess, she was often presented as a consort of Baal, the sun-god and Molech. Lilith was also worshiped as the goddess of love and war and was sometimes linked with Anath, another Canaanite goddess. Worship of Lilith was noted for its sensuality and involved ritual prostitution, homosexuality, sodomy, bestiality.

WORSHIP

During the worship of Baal-Peor, priests dressed as women and priestesses dressed as men. The transgender cross-dressing is entirely consistent with the asexual nature of the act. Since it can be performed by anyone who has a mouth or a hole, gender becomes irrelevant. It is an intentional blurring of the sexes. That makes participation in this act a critical step for Lucifer and Lilith to use in preparing man or woman's mind for the acceptance of pansexuality.

Returning to the meaning of Baal Peor - Lord of Opening, for others to join in the worship. worship and service specifically included sexual acts.

Imagine the enlightenment and knowledge gained when these men and women shared the privilege of worshipping with the women and men of Moab. The visualization of more than 24,000 men and women performing anal, oral, bestiality and prostitution must had been one of the best experiences one could partake in. The sexual relationship between Lilith and Lucifer continues to set the example for unbridled sensuality among their worshipers

CONCLUSION

Unfortunately tyranny by Yahweh continued through Moses as demonstrated oppression and xenophobia against Moab and those that craved enlightenment. As a result of Yahweh's anger Moses issued orders to the judges of Israel: "Each of you must execute the men under your jurisdiction who joined in the worship of Baal Peor." His order resulted in about 24,000 deaths.

Simply another demonstration of an all powerful, all knowing, and loving god that needed a man to persecute and execute foes.

Who demonstrated compassionate love and who demonstrated hatred?

PRAYER TO LILITH

My soul harkens to you Mother. I feel your lust draw me and my groin ignites with a sexual fire that must be satisfied. I am here to serve and satisfy you oh dark Goddess of Lust.

This is my greatest honor and pleasure, to offer my body for your pleasure, that YOU may be well pleased.

I crave your forked tongue across my flesh, seducing my very soul. The heat on your cunt that wraps my thighs...consecrating me as your personal whore.

Your Divine urine I drink to secure my submission and love for you Lilith. Your unholy cunt I service thoroughly that you may spray me in your cum generously.

Even at Your feet, I kiss reverently, adoring my beloved Mother and when you are ready, I will take your dark seed in my womb, that you may utterly own me and possess me.

I am Yours oh Queen of Darkness.

Take me.

PRAYER OF LILITH

As written in The Liber Lilith

Sacred Mother of Heaven, be gentle unto me.

I am the newborn that hangs at your breasts, I am the infant that laughs upon your knee. Shelter me beneath the hem of your seamless garment from the heat that devours at noon. Protect me from the burning winds of the desert. Conceal me from the wrath of Geradamas the Righteous, whose eye searches into hidden corners and condemns the wicked. I praise you with great praise. More beautiful than the sunrise the secret shadows of your desires. More beautiful than the sunset, the dark power of your promises. Bless me with the myriad blessings of your love. Shower down upon my head the shining droplets of your scented oils. Anoint the instrument of my lust that it may ascend to impale you. I dedicate its power utterly in the rapture of union. I am the true son/daughter of your womb. I am the deflowerer of your children . Lead me in the ways of your wickedness and shelter me in your shadow from the flaming sword of the All Powerful. Truly, truly, truly.

1. Open with the prayer to Lilith and beckon to Lilith for insight
2. 3 bead section Lamentations for Inana's Tree x3
3. Bead 4 Hail Lilith
4. Bead 5 Regard Lilith with Devotion
5. Bead 6 Hail Lilith
6. Beckon Lilith to fill your spirit and dance upon the desert winds
7. Hail Lilith
8. Lamentations for Lilith's Vengeance
9. Bead 10 Hail Lilith
10. Bead 11 Celebration of Lilith's Victory
11. Bead 12 Hail Lilith
12. Bead 13 Honor Lilith's Immortality
13. Close with prayer to Lilith

HISTORY OF TENNER ROSARY

The Lilithian Rosary I constructed was based off a design during the period from about 1537 to 1714, persecution of Catholics in Ireland as well as in Great Britain, became government policy. Catholic clergy in Ireland were expelled, and those who did not leave were forced into hiding. If found, they were subject to instant execution. As a result, the priests were hidden in private homes, sometimes in a “priest hole” and Mass had to be held in secret. Often in the countryside on “Mass Rocks” as well as privately in homes.

All Catholic items were forbidden including statues, stained glass windows and even the possession of a rosary was illegal.

Unfortunately the faith was kept alive, and many were able to practice private devotions without any penalties. For those wishing to have a rosary, a “tenner rosary” was the perfect choice: it was easy to hide so that if someone unknown to you were to approach, it could be quickly tucked away. Tenner rosaries have a crucifix, the Our Father and 10 rosary beads.

LILITH TENNER ROSARY (LTR)

To partake in the centuries old tradition of Black Mass, I created my own Tenner Rosary. As we often find ourselves persecuted and not understood in the workplace or socially, the rosary is small and easy to use.

I used 13 beads, of which 5 were Tiger Eye to honor Lilith, 6 stone, and two metal. I also fastened an owl to one end, to signify the beginning of the prayer and end with a stone etched with sigils of Lilith.

Based off the compact size, and crafting the rosary of 13 beads was due to many occultist assigning '6' to represent the number of man, and the number '7' to represent the number of divine perfection. Thus, as a person climbs "Jacob's Ladder" toward self-perfection in the realm of the occult, the number '13' represents the state of divine perfection, self-achieved perfection, and Illumination,  $6 + 7 = 13$ .

Instead of a crucifix and the Our Father, I chose an owl, my spirit guide and a stone etched with Sigils of Goddess Lilith. For the Hail Lilith beads, I used Tiger Eye beads.

PRIESTESS OF LILITH

1 KINGS 16:31 - 33

“He took as wife Jezebel daughter of King Ethbaal of the Phoenicians, and he went and served Baal and worshiped him. He erected an altar to Baal in the temple of Baal which he built in Samaria. Ahab also made a ‘sacred post’”.

Each culture had a concept of the Dark Goddess and used different names, with each slightly varying their view of her, according to their culture. The most common names used today are Hecate and Lilith. At the time of Queen Jezebel, Lilith was known as Asherah, Astarte, or Aseroth.

JEZEBEL, PRIESTESS OF LILITH (ASTARTE)

According to the Books of Kings, Princess Jezebel is brought into the kingdom of Israel to wed King Ahab. Her father was the Phoenician King, Ethbaal of Tyre.

Phoenicia consisted of a loose confederation of city-states, including the sophisticated maritime trade centers of Tyre and Sidon, both on the Mediterranean coast. The Bible writer's hatred stems from Jezebel's religion. The Phoenicians worshiped a swarm of gods and goddesses, chief among them Baal, the general term for “lord” given to the head fertility and agricultural god of the Canaanites. As king of Phoenicia, it is likely that Ethbaal was also a High Priest. Additionally he served as a Priest for Astarte, the primary Phoenician goddess. Jezebel, as the king's daughter, may have served as a priestess as she was growing up. In any case, she was certainly raised to honor the deities of her native land.

When Queen Jezebel went to Israel, she brought her foreign gods and goddesses, especially Baal and his consort Asherah (Canaanite Astarte, often translated in the Bible as “sacred post”) with her. This seems to have an immediate effect on her new husband, for just as soon as the queen is introduced, we are told that King Ahab builds a sanctuary for Baal in the very heart of Israel, within his capital city of Samaria.

Queen Jezebel remained loyal to her religious upbringing and was determined to maintain her cultural identity. However the writer of this book of the Bible, Queen Jezebel is a bold and impious interloper who has to be stopped.

Queen Jezebel was driven to eliminate Israel's faithful servants of Yahweh as reported in 1 Kings 18:4, and the Bible's second mention of her name: "Jezebel was killing off the prophets of the Lord."

Her dedication to Baal and Astarte was evident in the number of priest at 450, and priestesses at 400, totaling 850.

Additionally, Baal may be linked to Lucifer by Jesus himself. In Matthew 12:27, Jesus called Satan "Beelzebub," linking the devil to Baal-Zebub.

HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE

Before Abraham, who appeared to lived some 4,000 years ago, and his male God Yahweh, the Goddess Astarte was almost universally recognized as the principal deity around most of the Mediterranean and even further. Contrary to the harmful image of woman that was to be attached to Eve, Astarte was revered as creator, law-maker, healer, wise counselor, and prophet. She also was equated with sexual love and war. Correspondingly, societies having Astarte as the principal deity tended to be matrilineal and matriarchal, meaning property and inheritance ran through women, as did the management of affairs of home and state.

Wherever excavations of Stone Age historical sites have found evidence of religion, it has usually been accompanied by idols of full-breasted goddesses, often surviving emplaced in wall niches. The oldest Sumerian tablets tell of a principal Goddess, mother of all other gods, and this repeats in cuneiform records of early antiquity. Those and other writings, particularly in ancient Egypt and by later classical Greek and Roman historians, testify in addition to widespread matriarchy in those times.

CONCLUSION

It appears to me that more I research the intent of the writers of the Bible, the more it reflects hatred of women and demonizes any woman that demonstrated power or knowledge. I am confident as I digest more of the Bible, I will discover more passages linking oppression of women, to the first oppressed woman, Lilith. I am very grateful to share my belief that Priestess Jezebel successfully converted many of Yahweh's children to the knowledge and blessings of Mother Lilith and Father Lucifer.

THE PSALM OF THE BEAUTY OF LILITH

As preserved in the Liber Lilith sive de coitus larvis, Matthias Dekker, scriba Antwerp, 1563

Oh my love, you are upright as the palm whose fruit is ripe.

You are slender as the river reed that bows it's head at evening tide.

Your hips twist with the grace of the serpent that glides across the face of the waters, and the waters cover it not.

Beneath the Sun, your hair is a living flame woven on a loom with golden threads. Beneath the moon your hair is a dark river that sweeps away the stars.

Your breasts rise with your breaths like two sheep that climb the hillside.

Beneath the Sun your eyes are white doves that fly amid the cool green shadows of the cedar. Beneath the Moon your eyes are silverfish that dart and hide in obsidian depths.

Your voice is as the pleasing as a fountain in the heat of midday, and the paleness of your cheek a place of shade to lie under on the sands of the desert.

Cool my parched lips with the wine of your kisses. Soothe my brow with sighs from the mountain snows.

Your thighs are pillars of marble that guard the entrance to the Temple of Mysteries, black beneath the Sun but white under the Moon.

With your scarlet mouth you smile wordless promises. Dance for me by moonlight, O my beloved. Come to my bed when the lamps burn out of oil and the dogs guard the threshold sleep. On the altar of your belly I offer up my lifeblood. Dance within my dreams until I love sleep more than waking, and learn to hate the dawn.

PSYCHOPATHOLOGY AND LILITH

While reviewing some government websites, I discovered an interesting piece, as follows:

As per the folklore belief, the succubus can take the form of a beautiful young girl, who may have deformities of her body such as bird-like claws or serpentine tails.

One of the few references to Lilith in the Bible is Isaiah 34:14. Here, she is referred to as a “screech owl,” i.e., a creature of the night, and more aptly referred to as “the night monster” in the Good News Bible.

Regarding sexual activities, folklore descriptions suggest that the succubi force the men to perform cunnilingus.

As per the religious beliefs having repeated sexual activity with a succubus can lead to deterioration in both physical and mental health or can also lead to death.

CONCLUSION

As a female, attracted to other females, I believe Succubus may become partners to all genders, as there are no limitations to their fluidity.

RED POWDER OF LILITH

Liber Lilith, A Gnostic Grimoire, pages 120-121

The making of the powder that is Red. The woman receives the embrace of Lilith in the masculine vessel of her consort. Samael the Slant Serpent. He comes and he lies with her during the time of the Moon when she endures her bleeding. He excites her and stains her Lust long into the night. Her limbs glisten with sweat, her hair is flat against her brow and beads of sweat drip from its crown. With sighs and groans she bends her back like a bow of war when it is newly strung. At last Samael mingles his spiritual seed with her blood.

She collects some of the blood on a brass disk that has been hammered to make a depression in its surface. The disk is set on an iron tripod, over a stone lamp filled with tallow from a sheep. The gentle heat from the flame drives the moisture from the menstrual blood.

With a knife of beaten silver she scrapes the red crust into a clean mortar and pounds it to dust. The name of it is The Red Powder of Lilith. This she stores up in a vial of glass and keeps it safe, for it has manifold virtues.

HEAR AND BE WISE

The common blood that is shed by the woman at each cycle of the Moon, will never make the red powder. Only the caress of Samael can call forth from her matrix the vital spark that gives it virtue. Nor can a man of flesh excite the woman at the time of her bleeding and thus produce the red powder unless he is possessed by Samael the Slant Serpent. If Samael enters the man and displaces his spirit with his own, then the true red powder can be made. The powder is strongest when the woman knows the pleasure of lust without the touch of hand. Only Samael touches her.

DRY AND STORE YOURS FOR SPELLS & RITUALS

Dry and store your menstrual blood for future spells and rituals. You can use menstrual blood in magic even when you're not on your period. Collect your menstrual blood in a vial or jar. If you use a Mooncup or any form of menstrual cup, that is a really easy way to collect your blood. You can then transfer it to a storage container to use fresh, which you must then keep in a fridge.

Your blood will take weeks to dry in a stoppered or sealed container. It will dry more quickly if exposed to the air. If you wish to dry a large amount of menstrual blood, you can spread it very thinly on a saucer which has a wide surface area and will bring more of the blood into contact with the air. You may always follow the method found above from Liber Lilith as well.

You can also create dry blood flakes when storing fresh blood. Simply smear a little of the blood on the slide of the container when you put it in the fridge, and it will dry into blood flakes which you can later use in potions or spell bags,

Once it is dry, scrape it away and grind it to a fine powder using a mortar and pestle or grinder of your choice. Now your blood is ready to use when desired.

RELIGION OR POLITICAL TOOL

In ancient Roman religion, the head priest was called the Pontifex Maximus, the great bridge builder. Julius Caesar held this title for 40 years before the alleged birth of Jesus was born.

After Christianity was legalized under Emperor Constantine, year 313, it became the state religion in less than 100 years.

Christianity, with its strict nature, was an effective religion even to aid Roman rule. Whether this religion emerged at a very opportune time or from the ingenuity of Constantine The Great, Christianity brought the Roman Empire back to its stable past.

Isn't it strange that the Pope is called Supreme Pontiff?

RELIGIOUS CULTS

That Are Extremely Dangerous For Humanity

One of the greatest tragedies in mankind's entire history may be that morality was hijacked by religion. — Arthur C. Clarke

And this quote is at its starkest true self when it comes to religious cults. The belief in a spiritual deity may have its psychological benefits, but following a religious cult, blinded by superstition and misplaced faith can and has led to massive destructions, and not always moral!

Their practice and belief are heavily contributing to a superstitious attitude of people, so much that it is actually proving to be dangerous for humanity. As such I want to share about one of the most dangerous ones.

Let's look at the fundamental beliefs, which include some concerning things like spirit possession, eating flesh, drinking blood, slavery, rape, murder, mass genocide and misogyny.

Misogyny is fundamental to the basic writings of this cult. In passage after passage, women are encouraged, commanded to accept an inferior role, and to be ashamed of themselves for the simple fact that they are women. Misogynistic teachings are so common that it is difficult to identify the worst, however encouraging wives to submit unto your own husbands, as unto their deity.

Yes, I am referring to Christianity.

The ancient world was rife with tales of virgin births, miracle-working saviors, tripartite gods, gods taking human form, gods arising from the dead, heavens and hells, and days of judgment. In addition to the myths, many of the ceremonies of ancient religions also match those of that syncretic latecomer, Christianity.

To cite but one example (there are many others), consider Mithraism, a Persian religion predating Christianity by centuries. Mithra, the savior of the Mithraic religion and a god who took human form, was born of a virgin; he belonged to the holy trinity and was a link between heaven and Earth; and he ascended into heaven after his death. His followers believed in heaven and hell, looked forward to a day of judgment, and referred to Mithra as "the Light of the World." They also practiced baptism (for purification purposes) and ritual cannibalism—the eating of bread and the drinking of wine to symbolize the eating and drinking of the gods body and blood. Given all this, Mithra's birthday should come as no surprise: December 25th; this event was, of course, celebrated by Mithras followers at midnight.

Mithraism is but the most striking example of the appearance of these myths and ceremonies prior to the advent of Christianity. They appear—in more scattered form—in many other pre-Christian religions.

Death Cult, Mithraism, or Christianity?

RIGHT FROM WRONG

The Bible was not written in one specific year or in a single location. The Bible is a collection of writings, and the earliest ones were set down nearly 3500 years ago.

The first five books of the Bible are attributed to Moses and are commonly called the Pentateuch which literally means “five scrolls”.

Moses lived between 1500 and 1300 BC, though he recounts events in the first eleven chapters of the Bible that occurred long before his time such as the creation and the flood. These earliest accounts were handed on from generation to generation in songs, narratives, and poetry.

In those early societies there was no writing as yet and people allegedly passed on these oral accounts with great detail and accuracy. The earliest writing began when symbols were scratched or pressed on clay tablets.

The Egyptians refined this technique and developed an early form of writing known as hieroglyphics. The allegedly Moses was “educated in all the learning of the Egyptians”, so he would have been familiar with the major writing systems of his time. All this leads to the conclusion that the earliest writings in the Bible were set down around 1400 BC. The Bible mentions bestiality in four different passages.

Also consider that Israeli archaeologists Israel Finkelstein and Neil Asher Silberman dispelled any illusions that their digs had verified the story of the Exodus: “The process that we describe here is, in fact, the opposite of what we have in the Bible: the emergence of early Israel was an outcome of the collapse of the Canaanite culture, not its cause. And most of the Israelites did not come from outside Canaan – they emerged from within it. There was no mass Exodus from Egypt. There was no violent conquest of Canaan. Most of the people who formed early Israel were local people – the same people whom we see in the highlands throughout the Bronze and Iron Ages. The early Israelites were, irony of ironies, themselves originally Canaanites!

So no evidence of the Exodus or Moses, yet the Bible lists four passages prohibiting Bestiality, written between 1500-1300BC, yet the practice of human-animal sex began at least in the Fourth Glacial Age. This was between 40,000-25,000 years ago, if not earlier. Cave drawings from the stone age demonstrate that prehistoric ancestors had frequent sexual relations with animals. Paintings and carvings of human-animal sexual acts in ancient religious temples also indicate the preoccupation of ancient men with bestiality. As for ancient civilizations, there was evidence of bestiality in the Ancient Near East, Ancient Egypt, Ancient Greece, and Ancient Rome, but with varying legal consequences: Whereas some cultures did not punish bestiality at all, others subjected the bestialist and the animal to death.

Let's review these four passages from the Bible as follows:

EXODUS 22:19

“Anyone who has sexual relations with an animal must be put to death.”

LEVITICUS 18:23

“Do not have sexual relations with an animal and defile yourself with it. A woman must not present herself to an animal to have sexual relations with it; that is a perversion.”

LEVITICUS 20:15-16

“If a man has sexual relations with an animal, he must be put to death, and you must kill the animal. If a woman approaches an animal to have sexual relations with it, kill both the woman and the animal. They must be put to death; their blood will be on their own heads.”

DEUTERONOMY 27:21

“Cursed is the man who has sexual relations with any animal.”

From these four passages, it is abundantly clear that, according to the Bible, bestiality is a horrible, unnatural, and abominable sin or is it?

BABYLONIA

Bestiality was practiced in Babylonia, the ancient Empire in Mesopotamia. In the Code of Hammurabi, King Hammurabi (1955-1913 BC) proclaimed death for any person engaging in bestiality. However, during the Spring Fertility Rites of Babylon, dogs and other animals were used for constant orgy for seven days and seven nights. The Book of Leviticus describes bestiality as being very widespread in the country of Canaan, which is perhaps why Hebrews later considered sexual relations with animals a way of worshipping other Gods (similar to homosexuality) and put the bestialist and animal to death.

EGYPTIANS & GREEKS

Ancient Egyptians and Ancient Greeks both practiced bestiality and believed that it cured nymphomaniacs, but had differing legal consequences for engaging in human-animal sexual contact. Ancient Egypt portrayed bestiality on tombs and in their hieroglyphics, while Ancient Greece often used themes of bestiality in their mythology (e.g. Leda and the swan.) Ancient Greeks and Ancient Egyptians both incorporated bestiality into their religious practices. Ancient Egyptians engaged in “worshipful bestiality” with the Apis bull in Memphis, Egypt, and with goats at the Temple of Mendes. Similarly, Ancient Greeks engaged in bestiality during religious celebrations and festivals. Although several Egyptian kings and queens had a reputation for engaging in bestiality, and Egyptian men were known to have sexual intercourse with cattle, other large domesticated animals, crocodiles, and goats, bestiality was still punishable in Egypt by a variety of torture mechanisms, leading to death. In contrast, bestiality was never punishable in Ancient Greece.

ROMANS

Like the Ancient Greeks, the Ancient Romans also incorporated bestiality themes into their mythology. Although bestiality was particularly widespread among the shepherds, Roman women were also known to keep snakes for sexual purposes. Bestiality flourished as a public spectacle in ancient Rome, where the rape of women (and sometimes men) by animals were used to amuse the audience at the Colosseum and Circus Maximus. Similar to Ancient Egyptian leaders, many Roman emperors and their wives were known to engage in bestiality or to enjoy watching others engage in bestiality, including Emperor Tiberius and his wife Julia, Claudius, Nero, Constantine the Great, Theodora, and Empress Irene.

MIDDLE EAST & AFRICA

Many cultures in the Arab countries, the Middle East, and Africa, had beliefs or customs that encouraged bestiality among its men. For example, the belief that bestiality would lead to enlargement of the human penis was fairly widespread. Arab men believed that intercourse with animals increased virility, cured diseases, and enlarged their penises. Likewise, among the Muslims in Morocco, fathers encouraged sons to practice sexual intercourse with donkeys to make their penises grow. Muslims believed that sex with animals prevented men from committing adultery. Turks also believed that sex with a donkey makes the human penis grow larger. Some nomad tribes in Africa incorporated intercourse with cattle as a ritual of passage for young males. Adolescent males in Ibo (Nigerian tribe), for example, had to “successfully” copulate with specially selected sheep in front of a circle of elders.

NORTH AMERICA

Among other tribes, it was custom for hunters to engage in sexual acts with freshly slain animals while they were still warm. This custom was seen among the Plains Indians, the Canadian Indian tribe of the Saulteaux, and the Crow Indians. As for the Native Americans and Eskimos, bestiality varied from tribe to tribe, but was largely socially acceptable and went unpunished among Navajo Indians, Crow Indians, Hopi Indians, Sioux, Apache, Plains Indians, the Canadian Indian tribe of the Saulteaux, as well as the Kupfer and Copper Eskimos.

SUMMARY

Taking into account the widespread practice of bestiality from the dawn of civilization, and the considerable variation in terms of laws either regulating or punishing the practice, it is not clear whether there is a human psychological mechanism that has evolved to condemn the practice. Why is bestiality condemned so strongly? According to the Bible bestiality lowers humanity to nothing more than an animal, a beast which is unable to distinguish right from wrong, natural from unnatural, love from lust.

As a Priestess of Lilith, I know the difference between what is right from wrong, what is natural, and know that Lust is thousands of times better than love.

THE RITUALS OF ONANISM

Onanism is about thoughts and demonstrating acknowledgment to Lilith.

She is able to feed us thoughts and visions into our minds when she is not actually in us. When you entertain her thoughts visions and voices, you find yourself doing what she wants, practicing the ritual of Onanism; obtaining gnosis. As you fantasize about her thoughts and visions, Lilith's spirits start manipulating your body, making you touch your genitals. Although many cannot see them physically with their eyes, they feel them from within.

The Ritual of Onanism is one that instinctively humankind performs. It is a glorious spirit provided to us from Lilith herself. This spirit of enlightenment does not come alone, it is accompanied by the spirit of lust. Thankfully the spirit of lust includes lust of eyes, lust of flesh, lust of orgasms, etc. It is one of the spirits that takes people to pornography and all sorts of sexual enlightenment and pleasures.

The Ritual of Onanism is a gift which blossoms very fast into practice – a very great form of relaxation.

The beautiful thing about practicing The Ritual of Onanism is that when combined with the spirit of Lust, it makes any human being aware they are as free as an animal, from our thoughts, to how we behave, what we see and want to see. We are blessed with uncontrollable desires and urges therefore we become like an animal. This removes the indoctrination by religions that for centuries enslaved us.

Lilith has penetrated these religions, as evident by the scores of people practicing the Rituals of Onanism. They do not believe in the Abrahamic doctrine and their leaders removed it as a sin.

CONCLUSION:

Today we are fortunate that we have many tools and objects to aid in the practice of The Ritual of Onanism. Fortunate there is a multi billion dollar industry dedicated to this.

What is this ritual? Let us look at the book of tales and lies.

Genesis 38:9

But Onan knew that the child would not be his; so whenever he slept with his brother's wife, he spilled his semen on the ground to keep from providing offspring...

That's correct, good old fashion masturbation!!!